CYCLE C MARCH 6, 2016

4th Sunday of Lent

"The Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, 'This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.'" Jesus crossed lines that weren't supposed to be crossed. He talked to women in public, touched the "unclean" to heal them, and chummed it up with tax collectors and sinners. This didn't make sense. It didn't fit into the standard categories. And so the religious leaders began to complain.

In response to this, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son. Through this story, he illustrated that God loves all of his children even when they have not behaved perfectly. But more than this, the tale also deals with the resentment of the older son—the one who always followed the law.

Like the self-righteous Pharisees and scribes, the older brother complained. "All these years

I served you," the son said,

"and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat

to feast on with my friends."

But how does the father respond? "My son, you are here with me always;

everything I have is yours." In other words, the older brother had no reason to complain or be angry. He already enjoyed all good gifts. The father simply wanted him to rejoice that his brother had returned home.

"He was lost and has been found."

It's important for those of us who attend Mass regularly, participate in the sacraments, and serve in our parishes not to fall into the trap of being like the bitter older brother or the complaining Pharisees. We must welcome everyone in our midst with joy, not resentment or judgment. It can be easy to think that others don't deserve as much as we do, and to forget to be grateful for all that we have. But we are ALL called to "celebrate and rejoice" when the lost return home.

EMBRACE THE Year of Mercy

A Confessional Surprise

We receive some pretty amazing gifts in confession, including peace, joy, and true sorrow for our sins even if we don't initially start out feeling sorry.

One time, when I was going to confession, I had more time than usual to prepare because there were a few people in line before me. As I waited, I was struggling to think of any of my sins. Thankfully, I had a simple guide for confession with me which stated that the Holy Spirit will always gently remind us of our sins if we ask. So, I whispered a short prayer in that regard.

As I continued to wait in line, the Holy Spirit brought to mind my sins, and one of those caught me by surprise. I realized that there was a person in my life that I really disliked. In fact, I could probably say that I hated her. As I was thinking this over, it was also obvious to me that it felt good to hate her. So, what was I to do with those feelings?

The thought came to me that I could not confess this sin of hatred toward another person if I was not really sorry for it. It made sense to me that without true sorrow, there would not be a willingness on my part, even with God's help, to change my behavior. So I made an attempt to make myself feel sorry but that didn't work. Fortunately, another thought came, which I would presume was from the Holy Spirit because I was at a loss on how to proceed. The thought was to ask Jesus for the grace to be sorry. So that is what I did in a brief prayer, using those very words.

After confessing my sins to the priest, I went to a pew to pray the penance that he gave me. I tried to focus on the words I was praying while pushing aside distracting thoughts about what I was going to be doing later that day. Then all of a sudden I noticed that tears were coming to my eyes. I had to do a reality check because, at first, I wasn't even sure of the reason for the tears. Then it became obvious that I was being given the grace that I had prayed for, true sorrow for my sins. My heart was being softened toward the woman that I hated, and I started to see that it was my selfishness that was also contributing to the situation of our disliking each other.

The other interesting thing was that after this confession, I was able to view this person differently, and by simply smiling at her the next time that I saw her, the door was opened to begin a friendship.

In light of this experience of receiving true sorrow for my sins, I now understand better that God pours forth His grace abundantly to strengthen us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. With His gift of grace, we are able to break sinful habits; habits that are harmful for us, including spiritually, emotionally, and in some cases even physically.

Who doesn't like gifts? During Lent, make it a point to open yourself to these incredible gifts from God in the Sacrament of Mercy. You won't regret it!

CICLO C 6 DE MARZO DE 2016 4° Domingo de Cuaresma

El relato del Evangelio de hoy se inicia con la narración del hijo menor que pide la parte de la herencia que le toca y enseguida se prepara y se va de casa. Se aleja sin pensarlo más, gasta a sus anchas lo que había heredado y cuando se termina todo se acuerda que tiene un papá que le ha dado a manos llenas sin esperar nada. El énfasis de la parábola está en la sorprendente reacción del padre que lo recibe con gran misericordia. El Papa Francisco en este Año Santo de la Misericordia nos invita a profundizar en lo siguiente: "Siempre tenemos necesidad de contemplar el misterio de la misericordia. Es fuente de alegría, de serenidad y de paz. Es condición para nuestra salvación.

Misericordia: es la palabra que revela el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. Misericordia: es el acto último y supremo con el cual Dios viene a nuestro encuentro. Misericordia: es la ley fundamental que habita en el corazón de cada persona cuando mira con ojos sinceros al hermano que encuentra en el camino de la vida. Misericordia: es la vía que une Dios y el hombre, porque abre el corazón a la esperanza de ser amados para siempre no obstante el límite de nuestro pecado" (Misericordiae Vultus, número 2).

¿Cómo nos sentimos nosotros ante estas palabras del Papa?
¿Cómo responderemos al Evangelio? No olvidemos que, no hay culpa, por grande que sea, que no pueda ser perdonada. Que volver a los brazos del Padre donde siempre nos está esperando debe ser una fiesta y no una vergüenza.
