The Rosary and Peace

Autumn is a special time of the year. As we see the trees in their brief but colorful displays we must give glory to God for such beauty and splendor. What an incredible God we have! Yet, Jesus reminds that not one of these is as important, splendid, and beautiful, as each and every one of you! (Matthew 6:29 "... But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you").

I long for you to discover and savor this beauty within by taking the opportunity to pray the most holy rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary every day during the month of October.

October is the month of the Most Holy Rosary. The 7th of October is the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. On October 7th, 1571, an armada of Venetian and Spanish boats and sailors devastated a much larger invading force of the Ottoman empire at Lepanto. The victory was attributed to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the praying of the rosary on each vessel before the battle.

In 1917, during World War I, Mary appeared to three young children, Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco, in Fatima, Portugal. She told the children to pray the rosary for peace. She added that the current war would end soon, but that an even greater, more destructive one would occur if people did not pray and come back to the Lord Jesus. The rosary, she said, was a weapon to bring an end to war and a means of peace.

St. John Paul II, in his encyclical on the rosary (Rosarium Virginiae Mariae) said: "The Rosary is by its nature a prayer for peace, since it consists in the contemplation of Christ, the Prince of Peace, the one who is 'our peace' (Eph 2:14). ... Moreover, by virtue of its meditative character, with the tranquil succession of Hail Marys, the Rosary has a peaceful effect on those who pray it, disposing them to receive and experience in their innermost depths, and to spread around them, that true peace which is the special gift of the Risen Lord (cf. Jn 14:27; 20:21).

"The Rosary is also a prayer for peace because of the fruits of charity which it produces. When prayed well in a truly meditative way, the Rosary leads to an encounter with Christ in his mysteries and so cannot fail to draw attention to the face of Christ in others, especially in the most afflicted. How could one possibly contemplate the mystery of the Child of Bethlehem, in the joyful mysteries, without experiencing the desire to welcome, defend and promote life, and to shoulder the burdens of suffering children all over the world? ... How could one contemplate Christ carrying the Cross and Christ Crucified, without feeling the need to act as a 'Simon of Cyrene' for our brothers and sisters weighed down by grief or crushed by despair? Finally, how could one possibly gaze upon the glory of the Risen Christ or of Mary Queen of Heaven, without yearning to make this world more beautiful, more just, more closely conformed to God's plan?"

"In a word, by focusing our eyes on Christ, the Rosary also makes us peacemakers in the world. ... the Rosary allows us to hope that, even today, the difficult 'battle' for peace can be won. Far from offering an escape from the problems of the world, the Rosary obliges us to see them with responsible and generous eyes, and obtains for us the strength to face them with the certainty of God's help and the firm intention of bearing witness in every situation to 'love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony' (Col 3:14)".

During the coming month of October, I am encouraging, indeed, challenging everyone to pray the rosary everyday of the month. I especially urge families to pray the rosary together every night for peace in the family, for peace in our cities, our nation, and world. Jesus said true peace is the absence of fear..

Certainly the sailors and soldiers who fought against the invading soldiers of the Ottoman empire were afraid, but the rosary brought them the interior peace they needed to be victorious. Pray to Mary and she will lead you deep into the heart of her Son where you will find and receive the interior peace you need to overcome the difficulties you, and those you pray for, face.

Fr. Bob

Couples Preparing to Celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage

In the Diocese of LaCrosse (as in all the dioceses in Wisconsin) one expectation in a couple's preparation for the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage is to participate in a marriage preparation program. The diocesan program is entitled Married Love: Two Becoming One. The program should be completed 4-6 months before the celebration of the sacrament.

Married Love: Two Becoming One* will be offered in the Wausau Deanery on November 6 and 7. The deadline to register for this session is October 25. This is our last scheduled program for 2015. Contact: Ken and Linda Narloch at urpreparing4love@aol.com or 715-355-1806 for information and to register.
The dates for 2016: March 11-12, May 13-14, August 12-13 and October 28-29.

Jubilee House, a Catholic worker house, serves a free community meal and hospitality every Thursday night in the school cafeteria at St. Matthew Parish. We are accepting reservations from groups who would like to provide and serve a meal. If you are interested, please contact Charlotte Santama at 715-842-4582. We are also welcoming new core group members to help supervise the program and volunteers to work as supervisors during the meal. If you are interested, please contact Gary Tapper (848-6120) or Judy Pederson (675-9215). As Dorothy Day said, "Peace begins when the hungry are fed." You can be a part of the solution.

The Aging and Disability Resource Center is hosting a caregiver class. Powerful Tools for Caregivers is a 6-week series with a support group feel designed for family caregivers. This program is designed to provide you with the tools you need to take care of yourself, while you're caring for a loved one. Participants will learn to reduce stress, communicate effectively, increase their ability to make tough decisions, and improve self-confidence.

Classes are held at ADRC, 1000 Lakeview Drive in Wausau - Wednesdays, Sept 30 - Nov 4th from 1:30-3:00pm.

National Marriage Encounter Weekend in Eau Claire
October 24th – 25th

The program is presented by local couples from the Chippewa Valley Marriage Encounter, and will be held at Americas Best Value Inn across from Sacred Heart Hospital. Renew the bonds of mutual understanding and love brought about by better communication in your marriage. Marriage Encounter is designed for couples of all ages and denominations who are interested in having a closer relationship in their marriage. The weekend will begin on Saturday morning with 7:30 registration and close on Sunday afternoon by 3:45 pm. For more information regarding the upcoming Marriage Encounter weekend, contact Chippewa Valley Marriage Encounter, 127 E. Mac Arthur Ave., Eau Claire, WI 54701; phone at 715-832-3296, e-mail at rippsk@charter.net or through our website at www.marriage-encounter.org/Affiliates/chippewa.htm

As men we all share in a common vocation, the call to fatherhood. It is up to us to recognize how God is calling us specifically, be it as biological fathers, as adoptive fathers or as spiritual fathers in the priesthood or religious life. To help us discern this common vocation of all men, I cordially invite you to Men of the Cross, a men's conference day held at Viterbo University in La Crosse. The day is filled with speakers, sacraments, food and fellowship. Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 24th, and join Bishop Callahan along with other Catholic speakers to help discern your calling. For more information and to register online at your earliest convenience, please visit menofthecross.org

OREMUS: A GUIDE TO CATHOLIC PRAYER

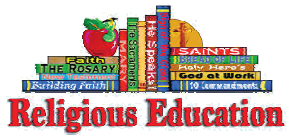

Do you Know How to Pray?

For many of us, prayer becomes a source of frustration as we struggle to calm our minds and to find even a few minutes to pray. In our busy lives, prayer is seen as a luxury, when in reality it is at the foundation of a healthy spiritual life. The good news is that you can overcome your difficulties with prayer, and it is easier than you might think. Over the course of eight weeks the Oremus study program teaches you the essentials of an effective and fruitful prayer life.

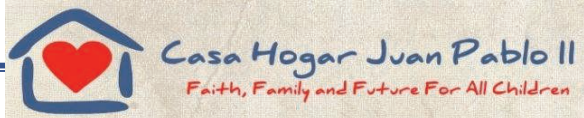

In Oremus you will become aware of God's presence in your life, discover the simple yet profound steps of Catholic prayer, learn how to respond to God and express yourself in prayer, and grow in your relationship with God and those around you.

Oremus will be offered at Holy Name of Jesus Parish Monday evenings beginning October 5 and running through November 30 from 6:30-8:00 pm. The cost is $15 for the participant study book. To register, contact Judy Borchardt at 715-842-4543. For more information on Oremus please visit the website: <http://ascensionpress.com/t/category/study-programs/catholic-prayer/oremus>.

Please join us for Holy Name & St. Matt's presentation on Casa Hogar Juan Pablo II and the 2016 Youth Mission trip to Casa Hogar
Sun., Oct. 4th, 2015 from 6:30pm-8:00pm
in Holy Name of Jesus Church

As Catholics we have a strong commitment to Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. These needs extend to people all over the world, including the children who live at our Diocesan orphanage, Casa Hogar Juan Pablo II, in Lurin, Peru.

Fr. Bob, and others, will share the history of the orphanage and stories of the children. Along with giving insight into how we can work together to make a difference both here and there.

One of the ways that will be discussed will be the 2016 Youth Ministry Mission trip currently being planned for July 5-14, 2016. This mission trip will be for teens 16 years and older who have a true desire to make a difference in the lives of others. Missionary efforts will begin before we leave through a variety of different events. And while in Peru, the group will work at the orphanage and spend time with the children.

This is a combined parish youth ministry trip. All teens, young adults and parents, from both parishes, are encouraged to attend and find out more about Casa Hogar and the trip. If you are not able to go to Peru next summer, you can join and help with the events, drives, fundraisers and other activities that are being scheduled from now until July 2016.

If you are not able to attend, but would like to know more about the mission trip, please call Noel Furger at 715-842-4543 ext 4 for more information. Hope to see you there!
