Second Sunday of Advent

The Season of Advent has various characteristics. But the two of expectation and immediate preparation are highlighted this Sunday. These two characteristics are exemplified in the person of Saint John the Baptist.

Saint John, when asked who he was, responded: "A voice crying out in the wilderness!" His whole life and vocation was to be the Prophet who would immediately prepare the people waiting in expectation of God's powerful work. He would also have the privilege of literally point out the Lamb of God to all who would listen to his voice.

He had been entrusted by God to prepare the people for our Lord's sudden appearance onto the stage of world history. Saint John would carry out this mission in a loud and persistent manner through the baptisms of repentance he performed along the Jordan River. He would even prepare some of our Lord's Apostles, such as John and Andrew, for their immediate willingness to spend time with Jesus to see if He indeed was the Messiah. Saint John would also be the last of the prophets, to prepare God's Chosen People for the immediate coming of the Redeemer.

St. Luke, in today's Gospel quotes the Prophet Isaiah: "A voice of one crying out in the desert: prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths." Yet, according to God's plan he would be that voice which would quickly fade into the background, because it was time for our Lord to step into the foreground. In fact, it was only after Saint John was beheaded, that our Lord began His public ministry. As Herod's executioner removed the voice of Saint John from the world, the Word of God, Jesus Christ, began to be heard through His preaching and teaching ministry.

St. Augustine says: "Saint John appears as the dividing line between the two Testaments." The Old Testament, like St. John, was meant to fade into background, because its purpose was to prepare God's special people, for the New Testament. A testament of redemption and salvation achieved through the shedding of God's own Blood!

In the Second Reading Saint Paul tells us: "May your love increase evermore in knowledge and all discernment, so that you may know what is of value, so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ." This was the message of Saint John the Baptist in preparing the people to be pure and blameless for the day of Christ.

Just before we receive our Lord's Sacred Body and Blood, the Church repeats the words of Saint John: "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." Advent is a time to ponder the words: "Behold the Lamb of God", to recognize the marvelous gift of Who is entering into our souls. And to also ponder the words, "who takes away the sins of the world," to realize why the Lamb was sacrificed.

May Saint John the Baptist continue to help each one of us in our immediate preparation in receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, and in our expectation to be able to live as a more faithful Christian in our daily lives!

Our Catholic Faith Through the Ages

Fr Dan's lecture series on the history of the Catholic Faith this Advent.

Three centuries following Our Lord's Resurrection and Death, the Christian faith was still not accepted in the Roman Empire. In fact this century marks two of the worst persecutions ever faced by our church. Come and see how the Church survived these attacks. See who were the major players in upholding Christian doctrine during these times. Class will follow the 12:05 Mass for the Holy Day of the Immaculate Conception on Tuesday December 8th. Additional classes will be December 22nd, December 29th, and into January. Meet in the new Gathering Space in the Angelorum at St Matthew Parish. No cost to participate. No need to have attended previous classes.

Vocation of Widowhood Day

Saturday, Dec. 12, 2015 | 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. | Cost: $50
Many persons choose their vocations and a vocation in life. Often the choices are felt deeply and have a sense of a "calling." What about the vocation of widowhood? It is not a choice, a decision, but it can be a special calling once the reality happens. A day for widows and widowers will be held at St. Anthony's on Saturday, Dec. 12th. All are invited to come for sharing and exploring what this vocation is and can be. Includes noon meal. Presented by Sue Soriano and Jenny Murphy, one who was recently widowed and one who is a widow of 15 years. We hope you'll join us and share your perspective as well.
Contact: 715-443-2236, info@sarcenter.com. Go to www.sarcenter.com to register for an upcoming event.
