THE MIRACLE OF LIFE IS LOVE

When I lived in Guatemala I had two cats, Maya and Taichi, both females. I decided not to have them spayed which resulted in several litters, or kindles, of kittens over the years. On one occasion I entered my one room house after work and found Maya's four little kittens on the straw mat in the room. Another time I watched as Taichi gave birth to one fluid-covered kitten after another. Once they were all birthed she cleaned each one and gathered them together. She taught them how to use the litter box and eventually how to drink water and eat food from a dish. She was a good mother. On one occasion, I woke up in the middle of the night to the gentle purring of a kitten. I looked up just as Taichi leaped up on the bed with one of her kittens — she was carrying them by the crook of the neck — and placed it near my head. Before I knew it I had five little kittens cuddling around my head and purring in my ears. The cats were easy to care for. They pretty much did what they wanted without much interference from me. I just set out the food and the water and they were on their own.

A baby girl or boy, on the other hand, requires a great deal of attention. It takes a special person to nurture, love, and care for a vulnerable little baby.

I find it so humbling that the God who created this universe, the God who is even greater than, and more immense than the universe He created, would choose to come to us as a little baby ... not only that, he chose to start out as a seed in the womb of the Virgin Mary. God didn't have to do that, obviously, and the fact that he did should remind us of how vulnerable our God is willing to become in order to show us how much He loves us.

This vulnerability is an important lesson for us to learn and imitate as we enter into the final days before Christmas. God yearns for us to let go, to be vulnerable, to not rely on our own abilities, but on His. It is like one of the lessons in learning to trust that is commonly used today: You are blindfolded and told to fall backward after you are assured someone is behind you who will catch you — as you fall backward you are make yourself vulnerable to another person. When you "let go and let God" you suddenly find that there was nothing to fear and you discover just how little you have to do, because He will do it all for you, because he loves you. This is the gift of Christmas — LOVE.

We await the coming of the Lord, who is love. "Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice! ... The Lord is near," we hear. The 'closeness' of God is not a question of space and time, but a question of love: love draws near!

Christmas reminds us of this fundamental truth of our faith, and, in front of the Nativity scene, we can taste Christian joy, contemplating in the newborn Jesus the face of God, who out of love drew close to us.

~ Fr Bob

God give you blessings at Christmas time;
Stars for your darkness, sun for your day,
Light on the path as you search for the Way.
God grant you courage this coming year,
Fruit for your striving, friends if you roam,
Joy in your labor, and love in your home.

~Myra Scovel

Our Catholic Faith Through the Ages

Fr Dan's lecture series on the history of the Catholic Faith this Advent.

The fourth century marks an incredible turn in events. The Christian Church is finally accepted by the Roman Empire. Persecution stops and the Church is able to focus upon theological issues. The Church, however, faces a new enemy - that of having power and influence. See how the saints rise above this. Come to know the great theologians, the desert fathers, and the emerging monastics who each contributed to make this century one of the most important in the Church. Class will follow the 12:05 Mass on Tuesday December 22nd. Additional classes will be December 29th, January 5th, and January 12th. Meet in the new Gathering Space in the Angelorum at St Matthew Parish. No cost to participate. No need to have attended previous classes.

Want to Grow in Holiness in 33 Days?

Want to start the New Year in a way that will transform your work, your marriage, your family, and your life? Are you ready to learn the quickest, surest, and easiest way to holiness? In our hectic day and time, St. John Paul II and Blessed Mother Teresa knew that the quickest way to be transformed into a saint is through a relationship with Our Blessed Mother, Mary. Join us on a journey to holiness as we begin a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration on February 11, 2016. We will individually read about, and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Blessed Mother Teresa, and St. John Paul II. They will teach us how to draw closer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. In our weekly meetings, Mondays beginning January 11, 2016 at 6:30 pm at Holy Name of Jesus Parish, we will pray, share our insights within our small group, and watch a 30-minute DVD presentation. The teaching DVD by popular author and speaker, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, brings our individual reflections and group experience into a clear and livable focus. If you are looking for a simple, yet profound way to be spiritually renewed, develop a deeper relationship with Our Merciful Savior, and grow in holiness, join us for the 33 Days to Morning Glory Retreat. Please contact Judy Borchardt at 715.842.4543 ext. 3 for more information and to register. The cost of the program is $25 for the book and the participant workbook. However, please do not let the cost prevent you from registering. Deadline for registration is January 4, 2016.

SOUTHWEST WAUSAU CIRCLE OF JOY

Once again, the generosity of Holy Name of Jesus Parish has been unbelievable! Your gifts of food, turkeys and cash donations were appreciated by the 25 families we were able to give a Thanksgiving meal to this year! We'd like to thank the students in Holy Name's Religious Education Program and Wausau Area Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts Troop #462 for their food drives. The amount of food and money collected at Mass on Thanksgiving morning was also wonderful! Special thanks goes to our wonderful parish secretary, Judy Borchardt, for all her help when turkeys and food were dropped off at the Parish Center. Special thanks also goes to Jason & Kristin Fritsche, owners of Rib Mountain Quality Foods, for allowing us to purchase items at discounted rates. Jason even did the shopping for us! We also want to thank Craig, Kelly, Tyler and Rhyan Lang for picking up and delivering the food to the Parish Center. Thanks also to Ken Mallak for all the cardboard box recycling help. The list of parishioners who donated money, turkeys or food has gotten so large that it has become space-prohibitive to list all the names. Please know that each and every one of you who contributed has made a real difference in the lives of those in need. We could NOT complete our mission to "feed the hungry" without your help! THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!
