DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The Image of the Good Shepherd is very biblical. In the Old Testament there are many allusions to God as a shepherd. The twenty-third psalm in a Bible classic: "The Lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I shall want." The early Christians saw in Christ the "Good Shepherd" full of mercy and protection, a Redeemer Who reached out to save and guide His flock. In the catacombs (underground Christian cemeteries) around Rome, which date back to the 1st and 2nd century, no other etching or carving is so common as that of the Good Shepherd.

The Church has always had to deal with not only Lax Catholics, but also super-strict Catholics who make penance and austerity an end in themselves. In the second century, the Montanists were such Catholics. They taught that certain sins like idolatry, murder, adultery, and apostasy could never be forgiven. However, the Popes through the ages have held firm that Jesus, the Good Shepherd, through the ministry of the Church can forgive any sin, if the sinner is truly repentant and intends to amend their life.

Later on in the 17th century, another group of Catholics in France called Jansenists, insisted that Catholics had to maintain a high degree of perfection, including freedom even from venial sins. And that such a high level of perfection was necessary in order to receive Holy Communion. This unfortunately, led many Catholics to refrain from receiving Holy Communion and missing out on the wonderful graces they could have been receiving. While the Church has always taught that one must be free of mortal sin in order to receive Holy Communion worthily, the Church has never discouraged one from receiving Holy Communion who is still attached to venial sins.

Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, who lived in France at that time, received visions from our Lord to promote devotion to His Sacred Heart and His mercy, precisely to undo the harm and confusion that the Jansenist movement was causing. Our Lord told St. Margaret: "I desire to reveal My Heart, with all the treasures of love, mercy, grace, sanctification and salvation, so that men and women may be enriched with these divine treasures."

Even in our own times the message of the Good Shepherd, which reveals the depths of God's mercy, is very much needed. Our generation is so marked by the culture of death: abortion, drugs, sexual immorality, a crisis of faith, hope and charity; a time threatened by terrorism and war, rebellion against God in an attempt to redefine sexuality, marriage, feminism, human life and family life!

Today's feast of Divine Mercy, reinforces the image of Christ as the loving Good Shepherd and reminds us of His most merciful Sacred Heart. Our Lord's revelation given to Saint Faustina, a simple, humble, Polish nun, was given to her shortly before the outbreak of the horrors of World War II. Her vision revealed two rays of light flowing from the Heart of Jesus. These two rays, our Lord told her represented the Blood and Water that flowed from His pierced side while He hung upon the Cross.

In the Ben Hur Movie, if you watch crucifixion scene, you will notice that the camera slowly focuses in on the blood of Christ flowing down from the Cross, which then mingles with the rain, and then flows out through the land. The director William Wyler wanted to show how the graces of Jesus, which He obtained on Mount Calvary, flows out throughout the whole world into each and every person. Jesus continues throughout the ages to remind the world, often grown cold and indifferent to mercy and forgiveness, that His Divine Mercy reaches out to all persons through His compassionate Heart. He continues to remind the lost that He never gives up on them, and like the Good Shepherd, He wishes to bring them to the safety of good pastures.

Who in this world does not need to ask for, and receive at times, the comfort, the forgiveness, and the mercy of God? Saint Faustina quotes our Lord saying: "Let the sinner not be afraid to approach Me, for the flames of mercy are burning Me, desiring to be spent."

Marriage Retreat, April 8-10

Who said marriage was supposed to be like this? What can YOU do to be authentic in a culture where everyone is telling you what marriage is supposed to be? Begins with 7 p.m. Friday supper and ends with the noon meal on Sunday. Cost includes overnight accommodations, delicious buffet meals, and program fees. Couples may share one room ($150 ea.) or reserve two rooms ($185 ea.). Presented by Michael and Karen Adsit.

Weaving Our Stories Basket Weaving Retreat, April 15-17

Basket weaving is one of the oldest crafts known – but it is so much more than a craft! It is a wonderful way to connect the ordinary with the sacred as you notice the parallels with weaving and our life's journey. You will create a beautiful basket, woven by you, to remind you of this step on your faith journey. No weaving experience is needed, just willing hands and heart. Begins with 7 p.m. Friday supper and ends with the noon meal on Sunday. Cost of $185 includes overnight accommodations, delicious buffet meals, and program fees. Presented by Kaila Russell. Contact: 715-443-2236, info@sarcenter.com. Go to www.sarcenter.com to register for an upcoming event.

Catholic Charities Love Thy Neighbor Appeal

As St. Alberto Hurtado used to say, "We are all invited to give until it hurts". It is not easy, but we can guarantee you that you will receive a thousand to one in return! In years' past we have asked you to help local families with utility assistance; assistance to help keep their lights and heat on, but experience has taught us that while the needs of the people we serve include utilities, there is still so much more! Our mission is to help the person where they are at and not with what we think they need. In other words, we help the person, not only their needs. By making a contribution to Catholic Charities, your generosity will allow us to do the works of mercy that Christ calls us to do. You can donate online at www.cclse.org. Thank you and God Bless!

2016 Casa Hogar Mission
Clothing, First-Aid & More Drive

The Casa Mission Team will be hosting a Casa Hogar Drive for clothing and first aide to be take to Casa with them in July.

When: April 9th
Time: 8am to 1pm
Where: Holy Name School Gym

What can do the children need? Clothing for boys and girls ages 5-17. Clothing should be new or very lightly used. All clothing must be modest in nature; no tank tops for girls, hemlines/shorts cannot be too short and shirts should have appropriate printing. Shoes are always needed, especially dress shoes for both boys and girls.

First aid supplies in all types, especially Neosporin. Items must be sealed and medicine cannot have expired. Personal items such as toothpaste and deodorant are also nice with this donation. As a special treat, we are hoping to take soccer balls, footballs and other outdoor activity equipment for the kids to enjoy. One thing they often run low on are presents (toys, stuffed animals, games) for birthday gifts. Please be mindful that complex game directions and books should be in Spanish.

In order to take the donations to the children, used suitcases are needed. Along with monetary donations to help with the charges to check the luggage. In 2012, the Mission Team took (17) 50# suitcases with us. If we are blessed again with that amount of donations, the luggage charges could be as much as $950. NO part of this monetary donation will be used towards the cost of the trip for any participant.

If you would like to drop off donations at a time other than the drive, have questions about this drive or would like to make a donation, please contact Noel Furger at 715-842-4543 or at noel@holynamewausau.com.

We would like to thank everyone for your continued support of the youth programs at Holy Name parish.

on April 27th from 6:15-7:30pm Religious Education will be presenting a Living Rosary along with the Crowning of Mary.

In presenting the Living Rosary all students, from kindergarten through 10th grade, will hold a knot on the rosary rope to say the prayer together. The rosary goes up and down each aisle, throughout the entire church. It is a beautiful celebration.

With May being the month of Mary, we take the opportunity to emphasize the importance of Mary in our faith by crowning her in a small celebration.
