The Compassionate Side of Jesus

All of the Gospels emphasize various aspects of our Lord's moral goodness. The Gospel of Mark emphasizes our Lord's humanity and His intense suffering. The Gospel of John presents Jesus as the Eternal Word existing for all time, who took on our flesh in our world to redeem us. The Gospel of Matthew portrays our Lord as the New Moses and Lawgiver.

The Gospel of Luke highlights the compassionate side of our Lord. And we have an example of this in today's Gospel reading. Our Lord comes upon a widow whose following her son's body being carried out by relatives and friends to be buried. He shows a deep concern for her. Her sorrow becomes His sorrow. And our Lord then works a miracle of compassion. And gives a living son back to his astonished mother, amazing all those around Him.

Elijah in the first reading calls upon God to restore life to a dead person. Jesus exercises His own divine power to restore the life to the young boy. Elijah begs God to reveal His mercy and His compassion. Jesus Himself reveals Himself to be the source of all Compassion. And He calls us to follow in His footsteps, to follow His example of compassion.

While Saint Matthew in his Gospel quotes our Lord as the great Lawgiver: "Be perfect as My heavenly Father is perfect." Saint Luke in his Gospel also quotes our Lord: "Be compassionate as my heavenly Father is compassionate." The art of caring for others, of giving aid and help to others, of being concerned about others, is the Christ-like art of compassion. It can be difficult at times, especially with our busy schedules. It can be draining a times, especially when it involves sharing in the emotional sorrow and pain of others.

Those of you who are good parents, know what compassionating with a sick child is all about. Those of you who are good spouses, know how to share and help carry the burdens of your spouse. Those of you who are good children, know how to visit and assist our elderly parents, even when such compassion requires much patience. Those of you who are good neighbors, know how to help out your neighbors when they are in need. Those of you who try to be good Catholics, good Christians, try to be alert to situations where we can show our love for Christ, by what we do for others.

At times we can be busy, but Jesus was busy too. At times we can be tired, but our Lord was tired at times as well. His heart went out to those in need and He reveals His compassionate side as God. And He calls us to be like Him in being compassionate towards others in our lives.

The main reason we gather every week is to partake in the Holy Eucharist, so as to be spiritually renewed and strengthened inwardly. And this inward renewal and strength should enable us, among other things, to be compassionate towards others.

Treat Your Marriage to a Unique Weekend Experience

Learn the Art of Living your Marriage Journey

“Living together is an art, a patient, beautiful, fascinating journey. It does not end once you have won each other’s love...Rather, it is precisely there where the journey begins” POPE FRANCIS,

February 14, 2014

As Pope Francis states, living together is an art and can be a beautiful journey. Marriage can be challenging with family, work, finances, kids, busy schedules and all that life offers. Losing focus on what is important in life is easy. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience focuses on what’s important in your marriage and provides the tools to live a beautiful journey together.

- ◆ Who is it for? Any married couple that desires a richer, fuller life together.
- ◆ Who presents the weekend experience? 3 Catholic Couples and a Priest
- ◆ Is there group sharing? No, the series of presentations are followed by couple’s time for discernment and discussion in the privacy of their room.
- ◆ How is a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience different? The weekend experience is not retreat, group therapy or marriage counseling. The weekend experience provides a quiet, meditative environment for couples to focus on one another and their relationship.
- ◆ How much does a weekend experience cost? At the end of the weekend experience participating couples and religious are asked to prayerfully consider contributing what they can to defray the cost of the weekend experience and to make the weekend possible for other couples and religious.
- ◆ Where can I find more information? View our videos at www.wwme.org/media

For the first time, a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience is being offered on November 18-20, 2016 at St. Anthony Spirituality Center, Marathon, WI! SIGN UP NOW at iowa-wwme.org or call 563-608-3305 to take advantage of this special opportunity. For other dates & locations go to www.wwme.org.

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy

As you embrace the Jubilee Year of Mercy, reflect on choosing to learn more about mercy from the Sunday Gospel. Here is a format you might want to try:

- ◆ Say an Our Father
- ◆ Read the Gospel for the coming Sunday
- ◆ Reflect on the following
- ◆ What is happening in this Gospel passage?
- ◆ Have you had or observed a similar situation?
- ◆ How is mercy shown or what is Jesus telling us about mercy?
- ◆ How can I show mercy this coming week?
- ◆ Thanksgiving-What will I be grateful for this week?
- ◆ Conclude with a Glory Be to the Father
