Jesus Always Sees Things As They Really Are

Jesus always sees things as they really are. While we have the ability to see things as we are, we can also pick and choose the bits of reality we are going to accept, the rest we just discard, or ignore, or deny. And so it may be easier for us to live our lives sort of blinded with a somewhat distorted and incomplete knowledge of ourselves, of others, and of God.

King David had a very interesting visit from the prophet Nathan who told him a story. A rich man with many sheep, slaughtered the only lamb of a poor neighbor in order to feed a guest. David was outraged and loudly condemned the rich man to all sorts of punishment. Nathan then revealed to David that he was, in fact, the rich man. He had taken Uriah's only wife as his own, although the king had many wives, and then made sure that Uriah would die in battle. David was shocked into seeing the evil he had committed. In shame and repentance and exclaimed: "I have sinned against the Lord".

David's sins of adultery and murder were terrible; but his honesty, humility and repentance before God was truly admirable. There are some Catholics who, because of their past sins, don't feel worthy to go to Church anymore. They need to learn the lesson King David learned. A lesson which even Saint Peter, who denied knowing Jesus, had learned.

What lesson is that? That repentance of sin destroys sin! That no one should ever despair or give up. Every time there is sin, there is also the possibility of repentance. Saint Paul sums this lesson up well when he says, "where sin abound, grace abounds more." God always welcomes and forgives a truly repentant person. Unlike some of us, our Lord never grows tired of forgiving a sinner who desires to change for the better. Our Lord told Saint Faustina, "The bigger the sinner, the more right that person has to my mercy".

In the Gospel today, the previously sinful woman who washed our Lord's feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair, and then anointed them with perfume, understood very well the concept of God's mercy. However, Simon the Pharisee who invited our Lord to his house for dinner was a person unacquainted with the need for God's mercy. Very gently our Lord speaks to Simon of human indebtedness to the Creator, of the reality of sin, of the need for forgiveness. Jesus is inviting Simon to see things as they really are. We don't know how Simon eventually responded to His words.

On one occasion our Lord said, "There is more joy in Heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine who have no need of repentance." Why? Because our Lord came to save! When His work of redemption takes root in a repentant heart, His suffering and death has born good fruit. Hence the joy of the Angels and Saints in heaven!

But Jesus also looks at each one of us and He knows us intimately. He knows our souls, for nothing is hidden from His gaze, and His gaze is still full of mercy. That same mercy He was able to give to King David and to the sinful woman, He offers to us as well! St. Isidore of Seville encourages the hesitant sinner: "Do not doubt, do not hesitate, never despair of the mercy of God."

Treat Your Marriage to a Unique Weekend Experience

Learn the Art of Living your Marriage Journey

“Living together is an art, a patient, beautiful, fascinating journey. It does not end once you have won each other’s love...Rather, it is precisely there where the journey begins” POPE FRANCIS,

February 14, 2014

As Pope Francis states, living together is an art and can be a beautiful journey. Marriage can be challenging with family, work, finances, kids, busy schedules and all that life offers. Losing focus on what is important in life is easy. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience focuses on what’s important in your marriage and provides the tools to live a beautiful journey together.

- ◆ Who is it for? Any married couple that desires a richer, fuller life together.
- ◆ Who presents the weekend experience? 3 Catholic Couples and a Priest
- ◆ Is there group sharing? No, the series of presentations are followed by couple’s time for discernment and discussion in the privacy of their room.
- ◆ How is a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience different? The weekend experience is not retreat, group therapy or marriage counseling. The weekend experience provides a quiet, meditative environment for couples to focus on one another and their relationship.
- ◆ How much does a weekend experience cost? At the end of the weekend experience participating couples and religious are asked to prayerfully consider contributing what they can to defray the cost of the weekend experience and to make the weekend possible for other couples and religious.
- ◆ Where can I find more information? View our videos at www.wwme.org/media

For the first time, a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience is being offered on November 18-20, 2016 at St. Anthony Spirituality Center, Marathon, WI! SIGN UP NOW at iowa-wwme.org or call 563-608-3305 to take advantage of this special opportunity. For other dates & locations go to www.wwme.org.

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy with the Ill and Disabled

Today Pope Francis will pray with ill and disabled individuals as part of the Jubilee Year of Mercy. As you embrace the Jubilee Year of Mercy, observe how you might bring joy to an elderly or disabled person by helping with yard-work, picking up some plants for them, or helping them plant some flowers. Maybe you can call someone who lives alone, is ill or needs some compassion from a friend. Can you help someone who no longer drives get to Mass, the doctor or the grocery store? Volunteer your help today!
