“Martha, Martha”

You tell me that you do your work well, you don't harm anyone, so you are a good Christian, although you admit that you don't pray. Well: “If you do your work well, you don't harm anyone, but you don't pray, what is the difference between you and a computer?” No difference. Computers work well, harm no one, and don't pray.

Sometimes we can get so busy that we forget what life is all about. We can get so involved in pursuing the things money can buy, that we forget the things money can't buy. Jesus never said to work always, but He did say to pray always. We are not meant to be workaholics. We are sons and daughters of God by our baptism. We could not be more privileged. It is a pity to see some of people reducing themselves to the level of computers.

Martha was distracted with all the serving while Mary sat at Jesus' feet listening to Him. No doubt Martha would describe herself as someone who did her work well and didn't harm anyone. But it did not bring her peace of mind. She became crabby with her sister for not helping her.

Jesus was certainly grateful for the hospitality that Martha gave Him. After all, didn't Jesus ask where the other nine lepers He had cured were, after only one came back to thank Him?

Yet Jesus saw the inner heart of Martha and knew that while there was goodness there, it was not being fed spiritually. So He gently chided her, “Martha, Martha, you worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part, it is not to be taken from her.”

Clearly working well and harming no one, falls short of what it means to be fully human. Martha had begun to inadvertently push aside the spiritual needs of her soul. Doing good work apart from Jesus and His grace ignores the reason Jesus became incarnate.

Martha came to learn that she would be much happier if she spent time with Jesus, along with doing what needed to be done for Jesus. We all can do good things for mixed motives. Was Martha's motive for serving her guest, to look good in the eyes of others so as to be praised? Did Martha fuss over things that really didn't need to be done? Was there a little sibling rivalry going on?

It is ironic that Martha was serving the Lord, apart from our Lord. Perhaps we too can find ourselves doing likewise. There are two pitfalls that Catholic spirituality has always warned us about. First, trying to do good apart from God and His grace. Second, doing good for the sake of human praise.

God calls everyone one here to pray, to talk to Him everyday, even throughout the day. It's encouraging to know that many do spend time in prayer with Jesus daily. Time spent in prayer is never time wasted. In fact, such time bears much fruit. We live such busy lives nowadays that sometimes we might not even be aware of what is really going on within us, or more properly said, of what is not going on inside of us.

Does anyone here ever use a mirror? At home? In the car? Sure we do, mirrors can help us look our best at any given time. Well, prayer is meant to be a "spiritual" mirror. Prayer enables us to look at our inner lives, our motives, our way of looking at things within our minds and hearts. Perhaps we will see things that we don't want to see, or perhaps we may see what we may not even be aware of.

Did you ever look in a mirror and see something that shouldn't be there?? Toothpaste - shaving cream - lipstick? Weren't you glad that you took a peek in the mirror? Well, when is the last time you were brave enough to look into your spiritual mirror through prayer?

If something painful from our past keeps popping into our head during prayer, perhaps that may be a signal to us, that God needs to heal that wound with His grace, maybe through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Without that healing, such a wound may become an obstacle to our friendship with God and others.

Sometimes we can't pray simply because our minds are so active. St Teresa of Avila, writing about this, said it is like having a mad man in the attic who rants and raves. In such moments Jesus gently chides us as well, “You worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one.”

Computers work well, harm no one, and don't pray. We are sons and daughters of God by our baptism. Let us not reduce ourselves to the level of a computer. Let us like Mary meet Jesus in prayer on a regular basis, so that we will be a new type of Martha, spiritually uplifted, strengthened and healed as we go about our busy lives.

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy by: Joining a Parish Ministry

Your parish needs YOU!!! There are so many ways to serve. Have you ever thought about becoming a greeter or usher to make our parish Sunday celebration of God's love more welcoming for the congregation? Servers are needed for daily and week-end Masses. Communion is such an important part of our faith life. Can you help to take Jesus to the homebound once a month, weekly, daily? How about becoming an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist and helping share Christ's Body and Blood at Mass on a daily, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis? Have you noticed how beautifully the choir leads the congregation in singing? Can you sing, play piano, keyboard, or another instrument? Would you like to share your talent with the parish assembly? Are you organized or like to clean? Sacristans and church cleaners are always welcome!

If you'd like information or any of these ministries are calling you to sign-up, contact the parish center at 715-842-4543. Trainings will soon be arranged! See you in church!

The Executive Search Committee is pleased to announce that Newman Catholic Schools has hired its new President. Mr. Michael Martin has officially accepted the position and will begin his new role on July 5, 2016. Mike has spent the last 22 years serving in the Marine Corp, specializing in operations management and strategic planning. Mr. Martin, his wife Cindy, and their five children recently moved to Wausau from Hampton, VA. They will be spending the next couple of weeks unpacking, exploring and acclimating to our wonderful community. At the start of the new school year, the Martin's school-aged children will begin their own Newman journey. Newman Catholic Schools welcomes and is blessed to have the Martin family become part of the Newman family.

As we look to the future, let us also give thanks for the dedication and leadership offered by Dr. Janet Klosinski during her tenure; a tenure that spanned many years and positions from teacher, to Principal, Vice President and finally President. This week Dr. Jan will begin her post NCS journey into retirement, a well-deserved new venture after giving of herself so selflessly for so many years. We celebrate all that she has done for the system and thank her for being the driving force in maintaining Newman Catholic School's high level of success. We also offer thanks for the passion she exuded in all actions, decisions and interactions. She can move forward knowing that NCS will continue to achieve great things due to her legacy. Mr. Martin will assume leadership of a strong, successful system.

Once in the position, Mr. Martin will begin reaching out to all stakeholders for formal introductions. He has voiced a desire to become involved within our supporting parishes, out in the greater community, and within our schools. A reception is being planned for early August to welcome Mr. Martin and his family. Stay tuned for more details.

Flowers for the altar

Do you have some summer and fall garden flowers that you are willing to share for the altar? Because the church is so large, the most effective bouquets will include larger flowers and a large number of flowers. Contact Ken Behring at 715-845-4089 or Mary Sleeter at 715 -359-9533 to make donation arrangements on, or before, the Friday that you wish to make your donation so they can arrange to meet you at church and put the flowers in place.

Thank you for sharing to beautify our worship space!

EXECUTIVE BOARD PLANNING MEETING

St. Catherine's will be having their annual meeting
 Tuesday July 26th at 6:30pm in Simmons Hall.

All ladies are welcome.

Bring your ideas for activities & fundraisers for the new year.

Ministry of Prayer

Holy Name of Jesus has had a long standing ministry of people who pray for those in need of prayer. When a prayer request comes in, the head callers on the Ministry of Prayer are contacted. These lead callers each have a list of members they contact with the request, this is about once a week. At one time we had 95 members and are now down to 30. If you are interested, have questions or are in need of this ministry, please call Judy at the Parish Center 718-842-4543.

Consider dedicating the Blessed Sacrament Candle in Church or in the Parish Center Chapel

This candle burns Sunday through Saturday. A $5 donation is asked for the week. The dedication and donor will be in each week's bulletin. If interested please contact the Parish Center at 715-842-4543.

Did you know...Our school has 148 bulletin boards?

Each year the bulletin boards are redone to make the rooms fresh and inviting for the students. Each year to go along with the year's theme and volunteers are needed to set them up. Don't worry about being creative or "artsy". Help is needed in many ways; putting up paper, borders and if you can, decorate them with the theme of the room.

If you can help, please call the Religious Education to set up a time that is convenient for you.
