Vanity Of Vanities

Some of the most famous tourist sights in the world are tombs. Among them are: the Great Pyramid of Giza in Egypt; the Taj Mahal in India; the Pere Lachaise cemetery in Paris, and the Jewish Cemetery in Prague.

The first reading this weekend, is from the Book of Ecclesiastes. It was written in the third century before Christ. The author came up with one word to describe life as he saw it. This word was vanity. The author uses the term “vanity of vanities” to indicate the superlative. He talks of work and the anxiety of heart, the sorrow and grief, and the restlessness at night it often brings. Jesus, who knew more about life than the author of the Book of Ecclesiastes, seems to confirm some of the author’s observations in today’s Gospel.

An anonymous author wrote: First I was dying to finish high school and started college. And then I was dying to finish college and start working. And then I was dying for my children to grow old enough for school, so I could return to work. And then I was dying to retire. And now I am dying... and suddenly I realize I forgot to live.

The man in Jesus’ story had the wrong priorities. The first was that he never saw beyond himself. His plan of life was a constant focus on his wealth, he never saw beyond this world. The man was a rich man, one who people might say owned property, but in reality the property owned him. God called him a fool. A fool is one who is mindless, even to the point of denying God’s existence. Thus, the psalmist in Psalm 14 said, “The fool says in his heart, ‘There is no God.’”

For Saint Paul it meant a great deal to say “Christ your life”. Sometimes we say of a person, “sports are his life,” meaning that such a person finds the meaning of life in sports. Jim Valvano, a famous North Carolina State basketball coach who, at the age of 47, was suffering from terminal spinal cancer, looking back on his life, told a story about himself as a 23-year-old coach of a small college team. “Why is winning so important to you?” the players asked him. “Because the final score defines you,” he said. “You lose, so you are a loser. You win, so you are a winner.” “No,” the players urged. “Participation is what matters. Trying your best, regardless of whether you win or lose – that is what defines you.” It took 24 more years of living for the coach to say, “Those kids were right. It is the effort, not result. What a great human being I could have been if I had had this awareness back then.”

Saint Paul, though, refers to something, far more reaching. We must find our present life as well as our future resurrection in Christ. This richer and higher life is to begin now, and reach its completion after this earthly life. We who are trying to live out our baptism have a new set of values. We think of giving instead of getting, serving rather than ruling, forgiving and not avenging. We are grateful for life given by God without cost, friends provided without price, eternity promised without merit. We have the insight that our worth isn’t measured by what we own, but by what we share and that we have the opportunity to grow in the lasting wealth of Christian love. We are not to define ourselves by our salary, by our material possessions, or by our accomplishments on earth. We are to prepare to move into the dwelling place prepared for us in heaven rather than building bigger barns. Do we have our priorities straight?

A sign on a bulletin board in a hospital maternity ward read: “Research Shows that the First Five Minutes of Life Can Be Most Risky.” Pencil underneath someone wrote: “The Last Five Minutes Ain’t So Hot Either.” For those still clinging to the things of this world, the last five minutes can be a time of great uneasiness and sadness. For those who have found Christ to be their life, the last five minutes of life can be a time filled with great expectation and joy.

We have collected $15,300 of our $18,000 goal for the Thomas Street Sign.

We are so close to getting the green light on this project, with $2,700 remaining.

Won't you please consider your donation to help enhance the presence of Holy Name Parish in the Wausau Area?

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We all struggle with the illusion that happiness is found in our possessions. God constantly reminds us that we will never find happiness through the possession of earthly things but only in the things of heaven, the things that matter to God. What matters to God? Care for the poor, the widow, and the marginalized; pursuing love at all costs; and raising our thoughts to what is above are the things that matter to God.

Missionary Fraternity of Mary of Guatemala

Father Luis Carlos will be speaking at all masses on the weekend of August 20th and 21st. He will be describing the work of the Missionary Fraternity of Mary of Guatemala and requesting support for that society, He has been invited to the parish by mission office of our Diocese.

Begun in 1981 as a youth ministry, with seven young men, their Fraternity was subsequently established as a Society for Apostolic Life in 1990. Since then it has grown to over 150 ordained priests serving 64 missions, in 31 dioceses, in 11 countries. Currently there are approximately 170 seminarians in various stages of formation at the seminary in Guatemala.

Fraternity mission sites are established where there are no clergy available to fulfill personal needs, in difficult economic areas, and among the poor and marginalized. Fraternity priests also evangelize youth, taking young men and women on a faith journey to develop their spiritual lives and strengthen their Catholic faith to help them positively impact the community or village in which they live.

Please welcome Father Luis and be as generous as you can in support of his work for the Fraternity

Ministry of Prayer

Holy Name of Jesus has had a long standing ministry of people who pray for those in need of prayer. When a prayer request comes in, the head callers on the Ministry of Prayer are contacted. If you are interested, have questions, or are in need of this ministry, please call Judy at the Parish Center 715-842-4543.

Rite of Christian of Adults ~ RCIA

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith?

Have you ever wondered why the Catholic Church celebrates mass the way we do? These are a few questions people ask themselves when they participate in mass or other Catholic celebrations.

If you would like these questions answered, the RCIA program may be just what you need. RCIA is an opportunity to bring those seeking a fuller understanding the Catholic Church and to an intimate union with Him.

RCIA generally starts meeting in September and ends in April, when the Catechumens and Candidates are fully initiated during Easter Vigil on March 26, 2016. At this time, our candidate session schedule is flexible and may be determined based on those in need of the sacraments.

If you would like to talk about your faith journey and how RCIA could help you with that, contact Fr. Bob, Fr. Dan or Noel at 715-842-4543. A time will be arranged to meet and discuss your personal situation and how RCIA can help you.
