EMBRACE THE Year of Mercy

Encountering Mother Teresa, Saint of Mercy Fond memories on this day of her canonization

I met Mother Teresa of Calcutta twice in Rome in the early 1980's. That's me in the goofy ski sweater. I was a seminarian in Rome for a short time, studying with the Oblates of the Virgin Mary, when she paid us a visit and spoke to us.

I still remember lining up with the other seminarians to ask for her signature. She signed my Liturgy of the Hours book. I treasure it now more than ever. Another young man and I volunteered occasionally at San Gregorio, the Missionaries of Charity house in Rome, and that was the context of my other encounter. We were out front when we saw two of the sisters coming up the sidewalk about 100 yards away. The sidewalk was steeply inclined so they came gradually into view as they ascended, but we saw a gap between them. At last the gap was filled by the emerging figure of Mother Teresa, who was barely 5' tall. We got excited, to say the least, and when the sisters reached us we had the privilege of visiting with her before she had to go inside the convent to meet with the members of her community. We basked in the warmth and kindness of her presence, the radiance of that wrinkled, smiling face.

The thing that always struck me about Mother Teresa was her simplicity of speech. She didn't need to be clever and sophisticated – the world listened to what she said because it saw what she did as an angel of mercy. She lived daily the words she spoke to her sisters, indeed to us all: “Carry Jesus and his light into the homes of the poor, especially to the souls most in need. Spread the charity of his Heart wherever you go. Love cannot remain still. It has to get into action, and that action is service.”

And so I overflow with joy on this glorious day as Pope Francis canonizes Mother Teresa, solemnly declaring that she practiced heroic virtue and lived in fidelity to God's grace, is with God in heaven, and is to be venerated throughout the whole Church. In the calendar of saints, tomorrow, September 5, is her feast day.

Encountering Mother Teresa, Saint of Mercy

Do you volunteer at a food pantry, community meal, homeless shelter, pregnancy care center, nursing home? Do you work with people with disabilities, visit the homebound, bring Holy Communion to the sick, serve as a Leader of Prayer? Do you visit the incarcerated? Do you go on mission trips to the diocesan orphanage Casa Hogar in Peru or to Africa to bring clean water or schools to those in need? Do you participate in clothing or food drives, contribute worthy items to St. Vincent de Paul, Goodwill, Salvation Army? Are you on the staff of Catholic Charities or another service organization? Or perhaps you quietly care for someone in need in your own family or next door, in ways the world doesn't even notice. The list could go on and on, but the important thing to say to all of you is that this is your day.

This is a day to give thanks to God for His Mercy and his call to you to share in that Mercy, to be his hands, his feet and his heart in a world in need. This is your day to join your prayers and your actions to those of Mother Teresa and her Missionaries of Charity around the world, rejoicing, giving thanks, and asking God to continue to pour out his grace upon you and the brothers and sisters you serve.

May God bless and reward you – as He surely will – for serving him in the little, the poor and the forgotten. As Saint Mother Teresa would often say, you are touching Jesus “in his distressing disguise.”

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy as a Ministry Volunteer

The Marathon County Transportation Program is looking for volunteer drivers. This program was created in 2002 to take elderly and developmentally disabled people to their medical appointments and grocery shopping. Due to increasing demand for rides, we are in need of more drivers to accommodate the rides requested.

If you have free time and would like to help the elderly, veteran or developmentally disabled population in your community, we have the program that could be tailored to your schedule. People in need of transportation will be matched with drivers from their area to take them to their appointments. In turn, drivers will be reimbursed at 54 cents a mile.

If you have any questions about the Program or are interested in an application, please call Jenny McKenzie at the Marathon County Transportation Program 715-841-5101. Your help is greatly appreciated.

Due to an increasingly long wait list, the Aging and Disability Resource Center of Central Wisconsin needs volunteer drivers to assist with Meals on Wheels deliveries in Wausau. We particularly need volunteers Thursdays and Fridays from 10:15-12:00pm. Contact Wausau's ADRC office: (715)261-6070

Do you have at least 1 hour per week to share with others? Are you kind, caring, and compassionate? If YES, please consider VOLUNTEERING with Interim Healthcare Hospice. Training is provided to ensure you are comfortable in your special role working with patients and their families.

Rite of Christian of Adults ~ RCIA

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Have you ever wondered why the Catholic Church celebrates mass the way we do? Or why do we honor Mary? Or pray to the saints? These are a few questions people ask themselves when they participate in mass or other Catholic celebrations.

If you would like these questions answered, the RCIA program may be just what you need. RCIA is an opportunity to bring those seeking a fuller understanding the Catholic Church and to an intimate union with Him.

RCIA generally starts meeting in September and ends in April, when the Catechumens and Candidates are fully initiated during Easter Vigil on April 15, 2017. At this time, our candidate session schedule is flexible and can usually be coordinated with the person preparing for the sacraments.

If you would like to talk about your faith journey and how RCIA could help you with that, contact Fr. Bob, Fr. Dan or Noel at 715-842-4543. A time will be arranged to meet and discuss your personal situation and how RCIA can help you.
