Does God Always Answer Our Prayers?

"What am I doing wrong? God isn't listening or doesn't care?" Some ask themselves. Well, let us take a brief look at some possible reasons why some people's prayers may go unanswered. Know that it's never God who distances Himself from us. Rather, at times it's us who, through our rebelliousness and sin, distance ourselves from God and His Love and Mercy.

The Sin of not forgiving others, is one reason our prayers may go unanswered. What does the 'Our Father' prayer teach us about forgiveness? "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." Such a teaching is not easy. As a matter of fact, it is impossible without God's grace. Sometimes a person must pray for the grace to be able to forgive. Once they have surrendered their will and resentment to God, a marvelous healing transformation can take place! Remember, Jesus went before you in having to forgive those who were torturing mocking and killing Him saying: "Father forgive them they know not what they do."

Living in mortal sin is also another reason why prayers are not being answered. When a person intentional (knowingly and willingly) hardens their will against God, and His truth and grace, they end up like the walking dead. While venial (or lesser) sins wound the soul, God's presence is still there. Mortal sin, by its definition, drives God's presence from the soul, leaving it dead. Think of the father who saw his prodigal son when he chose to leave his father to squander the gifts he'd been given. The father said "my son was dead." (Lk 15:24). Yet, when the son returned to the father from his prodigal ways, the father said that his son "is alive again." However, we should always continue to pray, even if we find ourselves choosing to live apart from God and His grace, especially for the grace of conversion and repentance.

The sins of pride, arrogance and envy are also hindrances to our prayers being heard. It is written that God resists the proud and confuses them in their inmost thoughts. Pride, arrogance and envy rejects the grace of God and leads a person to think that they know better than God. These sins also fire up feelings of superiority, hatred and a sense that someone is cheated in life. This can lead to the sin of greed. Such sins, if left unchecked, will and grow and ultimately lead to the rejection of God, because such sins are always acts of rebellion against God.

Sometimes God's answer to our prayers is "no" or "not yet". We've all experienced the "no" of God. Didn't Jesus experience a "no" from His Heavenly Father in the Garden of Gethsemane? Perhaps we too have experienced the "not yet" of God. Abraham had to wait 25 years before God fulfilled the promise he made concerning Isaac. Saint Monica had to wait 13 years for the conversion of her son Augustine.

God always has our best interest in mind when He doesn't give us everything we want. With our limited knowledge and inability to predict the future, none of us know what's really best for us in the big picture. What seems good to us today, might not be so tomorrow. We know that all things work for good for those who love God. If we trust our Heavenly Father completely, we can be at peace, even in times of difficulty. God won't allow anything to happen to us that cannot be used to benefit our souls and our spiritual lives. The grace of uniting our will to the will of God, is the secret to happiness and peace, a secret that the Saints have come to understand and practice.

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy with Caring

Did you notice it is getting colder? It is time to look for coats for those in need! If you have coats and other warm outerwear you no longer use, consider donating them now to someone in need or to a charity that provides coats. Know a neighbor who can no longer seal windows for winter or needs some caulking or yard work done? Consider asking if they would like help to complete the work.

The parish rakes for some of our senior citizens. Call Noel at 715-842-4543 and volunteer now.
