30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The Pharisee and the tax collector--polar opposites by practice. The one is a religious leader, a professional follower-of-the-law. The other is a deviant who extorts money for himself as he goes about his economic business. But in today's parable, Jesus flips these perceptions around. The humble tax collector is the one who "went home justified." Whereas the Pharisee has a flawless outer appearance, when we see a glimpse into his inner thoughts we detect his vanity and presumption. We see a man who may keep the letter of the law, but who is not truly converted to God's ways in his heart. The tax collector, on the other hand, pleads for God's mercy, recognizing that he needs it.

So, which one are we? Honestly, most of us are probably a combination of these two character types. Most of us follow God's laws some of the time, and fail to do so at other times. But the important point is to honestly acknowledge when we do fail, and to ask God to have mercy upon us. If we think we have nothing about which to plead for mercy, chances are we are living in a kind of self-imposed blindness like the Pharisee. When we won't admit we need help, it's hard to get the help we need! Instead, we should humble ourselves by honestly examining our conscience (regularly!) and seeking God's forgiveness, particularly through reconciliation, the great sacrament of divine mercy.

As hard as it may be for some of us to confess our sins to a priest, this humble act of acknowledging our failings prepares us to be "justified" like the tax collector who cried out, "Be merciful to me a sinner!"

Why drop a piece of the host in the chalice?

Why does the priest break off a small piece of consecrated host and drop it into the chalice before Communion is distributed? This action has a spiritual and historical meaning. Let's look at the historical significance first.

In the first centuries of Christianity, it was important for outlying areas to express their unity with Rome. The pope would send a small piece of consecrated bread to each church. During Mass, the priest would place the portion in the chalice to recognize the union between Rome and the local church.

But sending pieces of consecrated bread from Rome to each church became impractical as Christianity grew, so a practice was adopted to allow each priest to drop a piece of the host he had just consecrated into the chalice. Spiritually, the action serves to remind us that Christ is wholly and truly present in both Eucharistic forms: the host and the wine. When we receive the Most Holy Body or the Precious Blood, we partake of the entire person of Christ, the same Jesus Christ who lived, died, and rose from the dead.

The Real Presence, the singularity of the Mass, and the unity of the Church are all realities that point to the communion of saints and life beyond death. These things are not merely beliefs or promises; they are God's greatest gifts to us.

Treat Your Marriage to a Unique Weekend Experience

Learn the Art of Living your Marriage Journey

"Living together is an art, a patient, beautiful, fascinating journey. It does not end once you have won each other's love...Rather, it is precisely there where the journey begins" POPE FRANCIS, February 14, 2014

As Pope Francis states, living together is an art and can be a beautiful journey. Marriage can be challenging with family, work, finances, kids, busy schedules and all that life offers. Losing focus on what is important in life is easy. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience focuses on what's important in your marriage and provides the tools to live a beautiful journey together.

- ◆ Who is it for? Any married couple that desires a richer, fuller life together.
- ◆ Who presents the weekend experience? 3 Catholic Couples and a Priest
- ◆ Is there group sharing? No, the series of presentations are followed by couple's time for discernment and discussion in the privacy of their room.
- ◆ How is a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience different? The weekend experience is not retreat, group therapy or marriage counseling. The weekend experience provides a quiet, meditative environment for couples to focus on one another and their relationship.
- ◆ How much does a weekend experience cost? At the end of the weekend experience participating couples and religious are asked to prayerfully consider contributing what they can to defray the cost of the weekend experience and to make the weekend possible for other couples and religious.
- ◆ Where can I find more information? View our videos at www.wwme.org/media

Trends/Shifts for Health Care Professionals

Saturday, Oct. 29th . An opportunity for persons in the health care professions to come together for sharing stories. With recent developments in health care, the experiences for personnel are a major shift. Perhaps there is a sense of loss, a sense of being "devalued," and that time constraints, money, bottom lines are having priority over patient care, contact and connection. Through the story sharing it is hoped that healthy choices, self-care, and positive ideas can be celebrated. At this initial gathering, topics and possible future support will be discussed. Facilitated by health care professionals. Cost: $55

Rite of Christian of Adults ~ RCIA

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Have you ever wondered why the Catholic Church celebrates mass the way we do? Or why we honor Mary? Or pray to the saints? These are a few questions people ask themselves when they participate in mass or other Catholic celebrations.

If you would like these questions answered, the RCIA program may be just what you need. RCIA is an opportunity to bring those seeking a fuller understanding the Catholic Church and to an intimate union with Him.

RCIA generally starts meeting in September and ends in April, when the Catechumens and Candidates are fully initiated during Easter Vigil on April 15, 2017. At this time, our candidate session schedule is flexible and can usually be coordinated with the person preparing for the sacraments.

If you would like to talk about your faith journey and how RCIA could help you with that, contact Fr. Bob, Fr. Dan or Noel at 715-842-4543. A time will be arranged to meet and discuss your personal situation and how RCIA can help you.
