The Conversion story of Zacchaeus, Matt Talbot and ?

We read in the First reading from the Book of Wisdom: “Lord . . . You have mercy on all . . . and You overlook people's sins that they may repent. For You love all things that are and loathe nothing that You have made; for You would not have fashioned what You hated.”

There is a blunt saying which says: “God doesn't make junk!” But the message is true!!! God really doesn't make junk! It took Venerable Matt Talbot 28 years to understand the truth of this reality. He was born in Ireland on May 2, 1856 and died at the age of 69 on June 7, 1925. He was an unskilled laborer and had started drinking when he was 12 years old. His conversion began 16 years later when he was 28. One Saturday morning he was not able to get up for work because of his hangover, but that evening he went to the tavern where he and his buddies drank. However his buddies strangely totally ignored him as if he wasn't there. His initial anger turned into confusion and then into peace and calm. Grace somehow touched his heart and he went home without touching a drop. “You're home early”, his mother said. He told to her, “I'm going to stop drinking for good.”

He knew it would be hard and decided it was time to go to confession. It had been three years since his last confession and he had been drunk every day since then. During confession he took the pledge to renounce alcohol for three months. He began to go to daily Mass, which he continued to do until the day he died. Three months seemed like an eternity and involved a terrible struggle. But he stayed away from the pub and his drinking friends. He slept only four hours, spending the rest of the night reading spiritual books and praying. He especially turned to reading the lives of the saints to replace his former friends who were still drinking.

Having remained sober for three months he took the pledge for another three months. His thumping headaches and emotional turmoil began to subside and he felt new hope rise within. He also stopped cursing. After a year and a half of sobriety he took the pledge for life. He wanted to do penance to make up for his sixteen years of drinking. He slept on boards with a block of wood for his pillow. He fasted eating only enough food to stay healthy. He also gave much of his weekly wages to various charities. He certainly may be considered a “Patron Saint” of those struggling with alcoholism. His story of conversion shows us that a very ordinary person can, with God's help change. And it reminds us that our Lord came to seek out what was lost.

We don't know all the details concerning the conversion of Zacchaeus, but like Matt Talbot we know the results: even though it was very hard, he changed his life for the better! Zacchaeus gave away half of his wealth to the poor, and he restored four-fold any money he had falsely collected. He went from being a selfish person, a thief and cheater, into a new person who now thought of others and sought to redress his wrongdoings.

In the Christian Tradition, we call the experiences of both Matt Talbot and Zacchaeus as one of repentance and conversion. And these two examples remind us that no one here, including ourselves or anyone else we know, no matter how hopeless they may appear, is beyond the grasp of God through repentance and conversion.

Let us pray daily for courage and fortitude, both for ourselves and for others, whom God may be calling to a holier way of life, to repentance and conversion. Who knows who was praying and doing penance for Matt Talbot, most likely his mother. Whoever it was, they understood that God doesn't make junk, and that He overlooks people's sins so that they may repent.

In this week's readings we hear the story of Zacchaeus, a man who had been cheating people his entire life, until he has an encounter with Jesus. Jesus forgives him and he transforms. This is the power of the Sacrament of Confession.

If it's been awhile since you've been to Confession, check out the Answering Common Objections Series. Login, click on the "Audio" tab on the top of the page, scroll down until you see "Answering common Objections: Confession" by Dr. Scott Hahn. Click on the play arrow and listen to Dr. Hahn talking about all the things that keep us away from this powerful Sacrament of Healing.

If you want to learn more about confession, then Forgiven, the newest program on Formed.org is for you. Sneak peaks of the full program launch starting November 1st.

SOUTHWEST WAUSAU CIRCLE OF JOY FOOD PANTRY THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS

It's that time again to start planning for our Thanksgiving food to needy families in our service area. Last year we served 26 families, so we are hoping to serve that again. Can you help? We will need, of course, at least 26 turkeys plus all the trimmings. We have freezer space available for the turkeys. If you can help with a turkey donation, please call Dee at (715) 573-4858.

Cash donations are especially needed to purchase items that are not on our shelf, especially when we want to serve 26 families! Checks can be made payable to "Circle of Joy" and can be put in an envelope marked "Circle of Joy" and dropped in any collection basket, or can be mailed to: Circle of Joy, 4404 Rib Mountain Drive, Box 114, Wausau WI 54401.

Thank you so much for your generosity!
Southwest Wausau Circle of Joy

Annual Thanksgiving Mass Food Drive

As in the past, we are asking our parish members to participate in our Thanksgiving Mass food drive. When you get to church, keep the non-perishable groceries with you in your pew. You will be invited at the Offertory to bring your food up and place it in front of the altar.

There will be no collection that day, so if you wish to make a monetary donation instead, you are invited to bring it up at the same time and put it in the baskets that will be there for that purpose.

If you are not comfortable or able to bring the food up yourself, just raise your hand and someone will carry it up for you. Thank you!

Religious Education's Annual Food Drive

During the month of November, the Rel Ed program will once again be having a food drive for the Southwest Circle of Joy food pantry. Students are asked to bring non-perishable food items or turkeys for the Thanksgiving Day deliveries and to also help stock the food pantry for the regular donations that are prepared for families throughout the year.

The kids have a class to class challenge to see which grade can bring in the most donations. The winning class always receives a nice reward.

Families of Rel Ed Students - Help your child's class win this contest. Jesus asks us to help others that are in need, this lesson can be reinforced through this food drive.

Donations can be dropped off in the office or classroom on Wed nights. Monetary donations are also needed to help with the purchase of perishable items. If you wish to donate in this way, make checks payable to: Circle of Joy.

There are only 3 weeks of Rel Ed classes until Thanksgiving break, so don't delay!

NO items can be out dated; please be sure that you check that before you donate. Unfortunately the food pantry will have to throw those donations away. Thanks for keeping an eye on this.

Rite of Christian of Adults ~ RCIA

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Have you ever wondered why the Catholic Church celebrates mass the way we do? Or why do we honor Mary? Or pray to the saints? These are a few questions people ask themselves when they participate in mass or other Catholic celebrations.

If you would like these questions answered, the RCIA program may be just what you need. RCIA is an opportunity to bring those seeking a fuller understanding the Catholic Church and to an intimate union with Him.

If you would like to talk about your faith journey and how RCIA could help you with that, contact Fr. Bob, Fr. Dan or Noel at 715-842-4543. A time will be arranged to meet and discuss your personal situation and how RCIA can help you.
