Why the Third Sunday of Advent is called Joyful Sunday

The third Sunday of Advent is known as Joyful Sunday, Gaudete in Latin, because as we draw closer to Christmas the Church uses as its entrance chant on the third Sunday of Advent, the joyful words of the Prophet Zephaniah, "Shout for Joy, sing joyfully, be glad and rejoice!"

And yet, for many this year, it will be a challenge to rejoice. Sister Death, as Saint Francis called her, has made her presence felt among some families this year. The death of a loved one snaps us out of the ordinary routine of life. It reminds us of how quickly life passes in this world, and how short life can be for some. Death reminds us of how important it is to have a deep spiritual life, to have a strong faith-filled foundation to stand upon in difficult moments.

And yet unfortunately, too many are selling themselves short in life. That inner joy and peace brought about by having an active relationship with God has been lost by so many in our world, and with it the loss of the hope of heaven. And if we allow our spiritual life to be choked off by the bad things that happen to us in life, or we hear about through conversation or media, we can be easily overwhelmed and crippled. Our eyes can grow dim, failing to see the beauty and goodness of God, and His work in our world and His promises to be with us throughout our lives.

Poverty, greed, corruption, political games, people taking advantage of others and senseless shootings can cause some to withdraw into cynicism and into darker places of discouragement and despair. Such things, if we allow them, can drain the sense of goodness and joy from our lives.

Certainly, every normal person will experience a certain amount of sadness, loss and grief in the face of death and tragedy. And yet, the Entrance Chant today, during this penitential season of Advent, reminds us of a counterweight to such sadness, loss and grief. The counterweight of Christian joy and inner peace, is a very necessary counterweight to maintain the joy of God's presence within us. Our Lord lives among us and is present here in His Church and in His Sacraments, and He can be present within us as well, if we welcome Him into our lives, so that our soul can be alive and made holy. For some of us, Advent may be that time to once again rekindle that happiness, joy, and love in our lives.

Leon Bloy, a famous Catholic philosopher and writer, once wrote that joy is the infallible mark of a Christian. And in our times there is a great need for real Christians who are filled with joy even when the dark forces of terrorism, sin and evil work against us. It was on a dark night that the Angel's song of joy and glad tidings broke through the deep gloom of our world announcing the light and joy of a Savior.

Our Lord came into our world to be a light in the darkness of evil, sin and tragedy. You and I have the capacity to bear within our hearts, the power to make the joy of Christ's birth alive in our world despite the tragedies around us. If Christmas has any meaning for us, it ought to be that we have a Savior to show us how to live through the darkness of this world by allowing His Light to shine within our hearts. May each one of us Rejoice in the Lord always, so that God's peace will strengthen, protect and guard our hearts and minds throughout our journey in life.

SOUTHWEST WAUSAU CIRCLE OF JOY

Once again, the generosity of Holy Name of Jesus Parish has been unbelievable! Your gifts of food, turkeys and cash donations were appreciated by the 22 families we were able to give a Thanksgiving meal to this year!

We'd like to thank the students in Holy Name's Religious Education Program for their food drive. The amount of food and money collected at Mass on Thanksgiving morning was also wonderful! Special thanks goes to our wonderful parish secretary, Judy Borchardt, for all her help when turkeys and food were dropped off at the Parish Center. Special thanks also goes to Jason & Kristin Fritsche, owners of Rib Mountain Quality Foods, for allowing us to purchase items at discounted rates. Jason even did the shopping for us! We also want to thank Dan Torgeson for picking up and delivering the food to the Parish Center. Thanks also to Ken Mallak for all the cardboard box recycling help.

The list of parishioners who donated money, turkeys or food has gotten so large that it has become space-prohibitive to list all the names. Please know that each and every one of you who contributed has made a real difference in the lives of those in need. We could NOT complete our mission to "feed the hungry" without your help! THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!

Bad Weather Policy
for all Religious Education, Sacramental
Preparation and Youth Ministry Events

If Wausau schools are closed for the day, or dismissed early, our classes and programs are cancelled. If deteriorating weather conditions make driving hazardous later in the day, classes, and programs may be cancelled. The decision, in this case, will be made by 3:00 pm. Information will be made public through local television and radio stations. In the case of a deteriorating weather cancellation, the religious education building will remain open until 6:30 pm on Wednesday evenings. This is to ensure students are able to come inside in the event a parent was not aware of the cancellation. Please feel free to call the office if you are unsure 715-842-4543 ext 4.

Catholic Charities Homeless for the Holidays

Give the Gift of Love: There are many homeless members in our community sleeping on park benches or underneath bridges. One of our guests Sarah said, "I can't sleep on the park bench no more." She had asked and asked for help, but no one would listen, until she found Tristine, a staff member at one of our community homeless facilities. Sarah needed someone to stand up for her and help make phone calls and connections; someone to offer a listening ear and a compassionate heart. Tristine did just that and now Sarah has been living in her own apartment for the past month. This is just one story of how a life was changed through one of Catholic Charities' Community Homeless Facilities. We urgently need you to make a gift of love this holiday season and you can do so on our website at www.cclse.org. Your gift is vital to helping us provide service to those in our community who are dealing with homelessness or living on the edge of homelessness. It will help us keep our centers open so we can provide a place for our homeless guests to sleep, shower, get a hot meal, but most importantly, your gift will provide dignity and hope to those in need. The Wausau Warming Center and Beyond Shelter are places of hospitality and hope to homeless members of our community. Without your help, Sarah might still be one more homeless woman sleeping on a bench in our backyard. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Accessing the resources is easy.

- ◆ Go to Formed.org
- ◆ Click on "Register"
- ◆ Enter our parish code R2QYZG on the homepage
- ◆ Create your personal account with your name/email and private password
- ◆ Start exploring and enjoying all the Catholic content!

You might want to begin to explore Formed by checking out the Advent Reflections. Open Formed, click on Programs, click on Advent, and scroll to Advent to open the reflections. SOMETHING NEW! Formed has added some children's sections! Kristophen and the First Christmas Tree is an e-Book the kids are sure to enjoy as you put up your Christmas tree. Always wondered about the story of Our Lady of Guadeloupe whose feast we celebrate Dec. 12? Read the new book about her.

Opening the Word is found on the feature page of Formed and shares reflections on the Sunday readings. The Gospel this week finds John the Baptist in prison with doubts about Jesus the Messiah. John, like others expected a military leader, not a teacher and healer. John then recognized Jesus as the one foretold in Isaiah and went on to prepare Israel and us to hunger for God.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Aging religious need your help.

Senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have offered their lives in service to others—educating the young, comforting the sick, seeking justice for the oppressed. Today, many are frail, elderly, and in need of assistance. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps to furnish medications, nursing care, and other necessities.

Please give generously to today's second collection.

Thank-You!

In the loving memory of Chester and Irene Olds

A big thank you to the family of Chester and Irene Olds for donating the outdoor nativity set that has been placed by the Church next to the parking lot. Holy Name of Jesus Parish is very grateful for this generous gift which helps bring us the true spirit of Christmas.

SCRIPTURE STUDY USING THE FORMED PROGRAM

We invite you on Wednesday, December 14, 6:25 – 7:25 in Simmons Hall to discuss the readings for the Fourth Sunday of Advent using the Formed program. Here are the Scriptures we will discuss: Isaiah 7: 10 -14; Psalm 24: 1 - 2, 3 - 4, 5 - 6; Romans 1:1 – 7; Matthew 1: 18 – 24. Mark your calendar to join in learning more about Formed and these Advent Scriptures as well as learn about Lectio Divina, a method of Scripture reading. This is a very informal meeting with the goals of appreciating the Advent Sunday readings, helping more parishioners to know about the wonderful material available on our subscription to Formed and to spend a short time in prayer. You do not have to be a Bible scholar or have attended other Scripture study programs to participate! This program is sponsored by the HNP Education Committee. Call Jeanne Lang at 715-845-3024 if you would be willing to be one of the readers.
