The Difference Between a Present and a Gift

This weekend we celebrate the gift of God's love for us in his Son Jesus Christ who became incarnate in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Back during Christmas of 2005, newly elected Pope Benedict XVI spoke about the true value of Christmas: "It is presence, not presents! That presence is our ability to be present to others. The real gift of Christmas is to bring joy to others, not expensive presents that waste both time and money."

He explained the difference between a present and a gift: A present is an exchange with the expectation of something in return. It is part of the system of give and take, in which I give to you, and you give to me.

A "gift," is different. When I truly give a "gift" there is no expectation of receiving something in return. "A gift can be given only by one who has no need for exchange, no need for thanks." This says something about the one who gives the gift. "The giver has no need of reciprocation ... the very nature of the giver is giving. For Christians, God is the only giver of the Gift."

The greatest gift God has given us is His Son, Jesus, who came to set us free from the power of Satan and bring us healing and peace. It is this gift that we celebrate, worship and adore during Christmas and each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist – another gift of God left as a reminder of His love for us and His willingness to share His own life with us ... the Body and Blood of His Son.

This gift is freely shared and freely given to make us more Christ-like, more God-like, so that, ultimately, our giving will reflect that selfless giving which God, through His Son Jesus, has poured out on us.

May our celebration of Christmas be one of selfless sharing of the blessings we have received with others.

Fr. Bob

Christmas in Rome – Fr Dan

Many of you know that I spent four years in Rome studying theology.

This was a great blessing in many ways. But with every blessing there is a sacrifice. One which was extremely difficult was that for four consecutive years I had to miss spending Christmas with my family. Now that I am back in Wisconsin, I am so much looking forward to seeing my whole family on Christmas Day – especially my niece and nephew, who are three and one respectively.

Despite the great hardship in missing my family, Rome is a special place on Christmas. Throughout the city various churches set up incredible nativity scenes. Probably the most impressive is the one at the church of Santi Cosma e Damiano. Here over a hundred carefully crafted figurines depict the beautiful moment when Christ entered our world. Thousands of people pass by the display daily to see the various characters, many of which are set in motion – causing a truly spectacular scene. Another church a short distance away has an ancient tradition on Christmas Eve of placing a small wooden statue of the baby Jesus into a specially made crib in one of the church's many side chapels. This statue of the Christ child was carved from wood taken from the olive trees in the Garden of Gethsemane in Jerusalem.

Another truly remarkable place to see is the Basilica of St. Mary Major. Here in the confessio of the church directly below the church's main altar is preserved what is claimed to be the very crib in which the Lord was laid by his mother Mary on the first Christmas Day. The wood preserved here came from the East in the 7th century. It has been carefully preserved in this church in Rome ever since.

The final and probably most visited place in Rome on Christmas Day is St Peter's Basilica. Here on display in the center of the large public square is a life-size Nativity Scene and a fifty-foot evergreen tree.

This year an additional item is added: the spire of the Basilica of St. Benedict in Norcia. This church was destroyed in the recent earthquakes in Italy and for centuries stood over the very house where St. Benedict and St. Scholastica were born. On Christmas Eve, almost 20,000 people will join Pope Francis for Holy Mass and then the next day at noon he will give his annual Christmas blessing and 'urbi et orbi' message to the world.

How did Christmas get to be celebrated on December 25th?

Thomas Talley in his book The Origins of the Liturgical Year, presents some new insights to this question. According to Talley the starting place for the date of Christmas is not the Roman festival of winter solstice, as many have thought, but rather the Jewish feast of Passover, 14 Nissan. This is the traditional date of Jesus' death, according to the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke). In ancient tradition, the death date of a patriarch coincided with the date of his conception. If we accept this premise, Jesus would have been conceived and died on 14 Nissan. In the Roman calendar, this calculates to March 25, the present feast of the Annunciation. Counting forward nine months, we find ourselves at December 25th. Christmas Day thus finds its origins on the cross, not in the Roman celebration of the invincible sun.

Formed Holy Name of Jesus Parish is proud to announce that through a grant from the Diocese of LaCrosse, all of our parishioners (and even others who are interested!) will be able to access online a wealth of Catholic information, including sacramental preparation and enrichment, liturgical, Scriptural, theological, literary and entertainment resources! This magnificent electronic library even offers movies and eBooks! There is a wonderful selection of Christmas Season books and movies for adults and children currently available. Check the site often as it is always offering new material and other materials are removed. All this is completely free and available in your home 24/7 for your individual, family, and small and large group use, at least until June 30, 2017!

Accessing the resources is easy.

- ◆ Enter our parish code R2QYZG on the homepage
- ◆ Create your personal account with your name/email and private password
- ◆ Start exploring and enjoying all the Catholic content!

The Nativity Story- Want to learn more about the Nativity of Jesus? Check out this wonderful video on Formed. Check out the many Christmas books for adults and kids that Formed offers. Opening the Word There are several choices for the Mass readings today. Formed reflects on the Gospel of John which says, "In the beginning..." On Christmas when we want to hear about the wonders of Jesus' birth, it seems like an out-of-place reading.

Formed reflects that everything is a part of God's plan. Before creation, God loved us so much He planned to send His Son. Throughout the Old Testament He foretold of Jesus coming. His birth was the culmination of Creation. God always has a plan. Perhaps this is a year that Christmas is not as you, or someone you know, expects that it will be due to illness, family dynamics, death, economics, or something else. Perhaps this Christmas reality will open your heart and mind to God's eternal plan and His love. Know that God is in control and that this unique moment in your life is one which God has held in His heart for eternity. Know that God is in control, waiting to give you His love if you but open yourself to His gift.

Bad Weather Policy for all Religious Education, Sacramental Preparation and Youth Ministry Events

If Wausau schools are closed for the day, or dismissed early, our classes and programs are automatically cancelled.

If deteriorating weather conditions make driving hazardous later in the day, classes, and programs may be cancelled. The decision, in this case, will be made by 3:00 pm. Information will be made public through local television and radio stations.

In the case of a deteriorating weather cancellation, the religious education building will remain open until 6:30 pm on Wednesday evenings. This is to ensure students are able to come inside in the event a parent was not aware of the cancellation.

In all cases, feel free to call the office if you are unsure at 715-842-4543 ext 4.

Church decorating and liturgical ministry

Thank you so much to all who shared their time and talents to set up the trees and decorate the church for Christmas. Each helping hand made our worship space more beautiful. Special thanks to Ken Behring and Mary Sleeter for their leadership and decorating of the church for Christmas and all year long. HNP is also very grateful for all who volunteered to help at Masses during the Christmas season and all through the church year. Your service is very much appreciated. God's blessings upon all of you and your families as we celebrate the Nativity of our Savior. HNP Sacred Worship Committee
