Epiphany of the Lord

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

THE EPIPHANY OF JESUS

The story of the three Wise Men gives us an insight on how we are to approach Jesus every time we come to Mass. When we see our world covered in darkness we are tempted to become discouraged or give up. We need to be re-energized so as to be given a new perspective. Instead of seeing only with our human eyes, we need to see our life in the light shining over Bethlehem.

The first reading of this solemnity is about how the ancient Israelites were seeing life. They had just returned to Palestine after living for seventy years in exile in Babylon. Their homeland had been pillaged and plundered; their cities were lying in ruins. The prophet Isaiah was giving them a new perspective on their lives to give them hope. They needed to see things differently; they needed to see themselves and their lives in a new light as it was now time to rebuild.

The same was true centuries later when Jesus was born. At His birth both the Jews and the Gentiles were given the light of Bethlehem to see things in a new light, in a new way. To Jews and Gentiles God had become distant and aloof from the cares and worries of men and women. It was into such a world that God descended as a new born babe to bring light and truth into the souls of men and women of good will.

There will always be the King Herod types of the world who try to snuff out the Babe of Bethlehem and the message of light and truth that He came to bring, but they will never succeed. The Magi came to Bethlehem to see something new, something fresh, someone who would offer light, hope and redemption. These Wise Men came to worship and adore the Newborn King offering Him their homage and gifts.

It is the same with us who come to Mass; we too ought to come worshipping our Lord and God, offering Him our gifts and talents we have been blessed with and developed for our vocation and our employment. As married persons, parents, grandparents, plumbers, nurses, store clerks, etc. We ought to be offering ourselves to God at every Mass along with the gifts of bread and wine, asking Him to accept and transform our talents and abilities throughout the week, so as to make them acceptable gifts to His glory.

The Magi also came to take away with them a new message of hope coming from the birth of Jesus, so as to change the way they lived their lives back home. A hope not based upon renewed human energies, but a hope grounded upon God entering into His creation to renew and redeem it. Our world is filled with images of terrorism, suicide bombers, abuse of men, women and children, corruption in high places, and the politics of hate. Angry haters of Christianity aggressively attempting to force Christians to live their faith behind closed doors.

Our television shows and movies for the most part mock and ridicule Christian moral values, often degrading and tearing down that which is decent and morally wholesome. We need to be renewed and refreshed by the Babe of Bethlehem to counter this type of poison. We need His light, truth and grace to enliven us, and to be able to see God's redemptive work active in our lives and in our world.

Attending Mass every weekend, and receiving the Sacraments worthily, along with reading good Catholic spiritual books, praying daily, and having practicing Catholic friends, are all ways to help keep alive that new perspective in our life; that same heavenly light that led the Magi to the Christ Child, and changed their life's perspective forever.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

In our church, on the feast of Epiphany, we write the initials 20+C+M+B+17 over the doorway, what does this stand for or mean?

Answer:

Epiphany, like Christmas, is celebrated in various ways by different nationalities and cultures. The customs and traditions surrounding these days give them a distinct feel and meaning.

In many Slavic traditions, Epiphany is observed by marking the year on the mantle of the entrance to a room or house. In the center of the year are the initials of the traditional names of the three Wise Men: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. An alternative explanation asserts that the initials stand for the Latin "Christus Mansionem Benedicat," "Christ bless this house." Regardless of the interpretation, the purpose is to ask God's blessing on the home, marking it as though the Wise Men had come and found therein the Christ Child. It also recalls the marking of the doorways in Egypt with the blood of the lamb so that the angel of death would pass over. God's blessing comes to each home as a source of protection and grace.

St. Anthony Spirituality Center-Marathon, WI.

A Writing Workshop Jan 27-28, | Cost: $90

Do you like to write? Do you like putting words on paper? Do you journal? Do you create poems? If you can answer "yes" to any of these questions, you are invited to attend a workshop with other like-minded "writers." Everyone is welcome and no talent is necessary. That doesn't mean we won't get serious as we open to the creative spirit of God to move and inspire us. Presented by Sallie Bachar, a member of St. Anthony's preaching staff and a trained spiritual director. Sallie has authored two books and was the founder and editor of "Pauses," a small quarterly publication for women.

This workshop will begin with registration at 5 p.m. and supper at 6 p.m. We will conclude by 4 p.m. on Saturday. Cost includes program fees, delicious meals and overnight accommodations. Commuter Rate: $45.

Contact: 715-443-2236, info@sarcenter.com for reservations.

Opening the Word in Formed for the Epiphany of the Lord recounts the story of the Magi visiting Herod and then the Christ Child. Herod feigns respect for the Child while he fears Jesus will take his kingship and power from him. The Magi travel far to a land where no one else seems to know of Christ's coming to praise Him and bring their most precious gifts. Imagine the irony of their sacrifice as these three kings bow to a child born in a stable surrounded by animals of parents who were not able to get a room! Every Mass gives each of us a chance to come before the Real Presence of Jesus and bring ourselves, our most precious lives, to Him. Come, bow and give homage to our Lord and Savior and He will unite His body and blood with yours. Come to receive your gift of love.

4th Grade Catechist Needed Immediately

The Religious Education program needs a 4th grade catechist for the remainder of this school year. If you feel like you could make a difference in the lives of the young people of our parish, please consider helping in this capacity.

Training will be provided to ensure that you are ready and comfortable before teaching. Classes are on Wednesday evenings from 6:15-7:30 pm (weeks with holidays or student vacations are never scheduled). Preparation is done at home, but the textbook is easy to work with, and assistance can always be provided if needed.

If you are unsure, but would like to know more about the program and expectations, call the Rel Ed office at 715.842.4543 ext 4. I would be glad to set up an appointment and talk one on one with any one interested. Thank you.
