8th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span?" No, indeed we can't. But evidence does suggest that worrying can subtract time from our life span! Clearly, we are not meant to worry. It's not healthy and it's not useful. But for many of us, it's quite difficult not to be anxious and concerned about matters that are important to us. So what is the secret to letting go of this unnecessary anxiety?

Jesus gives us an answer in today's Gospel. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides." In other words, our focus should be on being faithful followers of God. When we put our trust in the providence of the One who "clothes the grass of the field," and stop trying to rely on our own (meager) powers, then things will be taken care of: "Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all." Part of the secret here, of course, is coming to accept God's will for us, even when it doesn't perfectly match what we may have been envisioning. There is a kind of surrender involved that puts God's plan first. Instead of getting worked up that things aren't going our way, this kind of reliance upon God enables us to relax and accept the way things are going. The great spiritual writer, Jean-Pierre de Caussade, put it well in his work,

"Abandonment to Divine Providence," when he said, "To escape the distress caused by regret for the past or fear about the future, this is the rule to follow: leave the past to the infinite mercy of God, the future to His good Providence, give the present wholly to His love by being faithful to His grace." God takes care of the birds, the flowers, even the grass! He will also take care of us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Carnivale and Mardi Gras celebrations are linked to Ash Wednesday, Lent, fasting, and abstinence. What are the connections between these events?

Answer:

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of the forty days known as Lent. The recommended practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving become the focus of Lenten activity and ritual. Each of these spiritual practices is aimed at personal discipline as well as continued concern for others, especially the poor or alienated. Relying on God's providence and care, no matter how difficult life becomes, is crucial to Lenten spirituality. Fasting was initially stricter, permitting only one simple meal a day without meat, fish, or other delicacies. Such things were not even allowed in the house. So in order to prepare for this in an age of no refrigeration, people gathered to consume whatever was not allowed during Lent. This led to parties or celebrations originally referred to as Carnivale, literally meaning "goodbye to meat," or Mardi Gras, literally meaning "Fat Tuesday." The eating and celebrating ended on the Tuesday just before Ash Wednesday.

We'd like to thank everyone who contributed to the Souper Bowl of Caring this year. Because of your generosity, we were able to collect $671.54, which will go to directly help needy families that we serve right here in the Holy Name area.

We're going to try something new next year. In the spirit of competition that Super Bowl Weekend brings, we will have our own competition between the three Masses (4:00pm, 8:00am and 10:30am). We'll ask the congregation at each Mass to compete for the largest donation amounts and see which Mass gets bragging rights! Just an FYI...if we had done it this year, the 10:30 a.m. Mass would have won Super Bowl of Caring 2017.

Thank you again for your generosity and continued support of our efforts to feed the hungry.

~ Lent is a Time for Giving ~ for Students in Religious Education

Religious Education students will once again bring home mite boxes to save their money throughout Lent to donate to help children in areas that suffer from poverty of all kinds. This is a wonderful way to remind the students that they are all asked to help one another, especially during this Lenten season.

We ask parents to take an active role in this project and remind the children that every dollar can make a difference in the lives of other children. This year the donations will go to the Missionary Childhood Association (MCA) and the Diocese of LaCrosse Juan Pablo II Casa Hogar orphanage in Peru. Go to www.homeajpm.org and learn more about the orphanage.

Even as adults, we forget that giving up meat on Fridays, or chocolate or soda, our favorite TV show or playing a game is not all that it means to fast during Lent. Fasting includes taking time out of your everyday lives to quietly spend with Jesus. What better way to spend time with Jesus than to do what is expected of all of us, to live a life like Jesus and help one another in all ways.
