First Sunday of Lent on Temptation

At a monastery, one of the younger monks asked an older monk, "How are you, Father?" He replied, "There is still a bit of the devil in me!" This may sound funny, but it expresses a truth about all of us, "there is still a bit of the devil in us" because we have not yet fully overcome sin. Jesus spent forty days in the desert overcoming the devil, and Lent is a time for us to get rid of whatever bit of the devil remains in us by overcoming sin in our lives. Whenever we sin we have forgotten who we are and what God has done for us. Remembering who we are and what God has done for us helps us to keep away from sin. The first reading today tells of the story where our first parents, still living in the Garden of Eden, had so quickly forgotten all the blessings they had received from God and to keep God first in their lives.

Lent is a time when we reflect on the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus so that by remembering we may overcome sin. Just as Jesus overcame Satan during the forty days in the desert we want to overcome Satan in our lives. We overcome Satan by keeping God first in our lives in every way so as to remember all that He has done for us. The three quotations from Deuteronomy cited by Jesus when talking with Satan in the Gospel remind us of putting God first in everything. "Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the Lord. . . . You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test. . . . You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve."

William Ward wrote a Lenten Prayer which shows how we can put God first in everything and live by the word of the Lord instead of living from the bread of the world then we:

Fast from fear; Feast on Faith
Fast from despair; Feed on hope.
Fast from depressing news; Feed on prayer.
Fast from discontent; Feast on gratitude.
Fast from anger and worry; Feed on patience.
Fast from negative thinking; Feast on positive thinking.
Fast from bitterness; Feed on love and forgiveness.
Fast from words that wound; Feast on words that heal.
Fast from gravity; Feast on joy and humor.

When we live on the bread of the world by not putting God first, we sin and can never hope to be happy because sin always leaves us guilty. In the words of the poem, sin brings us fear, despair, depressing news, discontent, anger and worry, negative thinking, bitterness, words that wound. But when we overcome sin, then in the words of the poem, we live on faith, hope, prayer, gratitude, patience, positive thinking, love and forgiveness, words that heal, joy and humor.

The words of the old monk are true for all of us who are humble; there is still a bit of the devil in each one of us. During Lent we remember Jesus in the desert overcoming Satan. We too should desire to overcome Satan in our lives so that we too will rise to new life with Jesus. One can best do this by keeping before our eyes and mind the central belief of our creed, the death and resurrection of Jesus, which we are called by God to actively participate in every week at the weekend Mass.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

At times, temptation seems so powerful that it is almost impossible to resist. How can I be stronger in my resolve to avoid sin and temptation?

Answer:

Temptation is powerful because it appeals to our human weakness and our desire for power, wealth, or personal satisfaction. Evil disguises itself as something good and we are enticed to make a choice. Our will is weakened each time we give in to something for selfish reasons, especially things we do not wish to choose. It is not something we can totally avoid, because temptation is not something we create or even recognize sometimes, but rather it comes from evil. But it would be a mistake to think of temptation only in terms of things that are really sinful. Temptation gains its strength by wearing down our will to choose good. If we fail in the small choices, we are all the more likely to fail in the bigger ones. Herein lies the wisdom of the Church in encouraging us to make small sacrifices and to do Lenten penance. In these practices of self-denial, we strengthen our will to choose, our ability to recognize good, and our desire to avoid evil. We then overcome evil in the small struggles of daily life and are more attuned to the prompting our conscience to choose good.

Lenten Day of Prayer (St. Paul) Wed, March 15.
(9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.): Focus: St. Paul. The morning will provide a historical focus to the circumstances surrounding Paul. Cost of $55 includes continental breakfast and a delicious noon meal.

Nothing Can Separate Us (Healing After Suicide) March 17-19. There will be a service of remembrance and healings for those who have been lost to us. The retreat will offer space for quiet reflection as well as connection with others. Presented by Catherine Kuschel (M.Div, MAC, LPCC, LADC-MN). Begins with Friday evening registration at 5 p.m. and will conclude by 1 p.m. on Sunday.

Lent ends with the Triduum which includes Holy Thursday when Christ gave us the Eucharist. But Eucharist was a part of our sacred history since creation. You can learn about the Scriptural history of Eucharist by doing the Lectio Divina Bible Study using the program Eucharist in Formed. Open Formed, click on programs, scroll to Lectio Divina - Eucharist to find the 10 session 30 - 50 minute series. ~ Lent is a Time for Giving ~ for Students in Religious Education

Religious Education students will once again bring home mite boxes to save their money throughout Lent to donate to help children in areas that suffer from poverty of all kinds. This is a wonderful way to remind the students that we are all asked to help one another, especially during this Lenten season.

We ask parents to take an active role in this project and remind the children that every dollar can make a difference in the lives of other children. This year the donations will go to the Missionary Childhood Association (MCA) and the Diocese of LaCrosse Juan Pablo II Casa Hogar orphanage in Peru. Go to www.homeajpm.org and learn more about the orphanage.

Even as adults, we forget that giving up meat on Fridays, or chocolate or soda; our favorite TV show or playing a game is not all that it means to fast during Lent. Fasting includes taking time out of your everyday lives to quietly spend with Jesus. What better way to spend time with Jesus than to do what is expected of all of us, to live a life like Jesus and help one another in all ways.
