Second Sunday of Lent on the Transfiguration

Our Lord, along with the apostles, went from town to town preaching and healing. And while many were open to Our Lord and His message, the number of enemies were increasing, and they were becoming bolder in trying to ensnare our Lord into saying or doing something which they could publicly condemn Him for.

And so the tensions and the demands being made upon our Lord and the apostles by the ever growing crowds were increased each day. No normal person wants their life filled with anxiety, fear, sadness, disagreements, anger, bitterness and tension.

Certainly, we all have experienced moments, days, weeks and even months, when our life is burdened with some sort of anxiety, tension, trial, or sickness that really stresses us out. Most normal people can handle such moments of crisis and even extended situations of difficulty and stress, when necessary. Yet, people also need a certain amount of calmness and serenity in their lives to balance out these tensions and stress.

Flood, tornados, loss of a job, sickness, the death of someone close, being attentive to the many needs of children and caring for our older relatives, and financial issues, are just a few of the many things that can cause anxiety and unwanted stress. Most people want to get out of such difficult and trying situations and desire to get back into some sort normality in life.

And so it was completely normal that Peter wanted to build three tents on the mountain top. And that he wanted everyone to stay there to continue to enjoy the peace, the calm, and the spiritual joy which they were experiencing. Peter reflects the honest reaction that all of us have, which is that of wanting to hold on to the good times, the good experiences, and not wanting to enter or reenter into difficult situations of stress and tension.

But that is precisely what the lesson of today's Gospel touches upon, our willingness to face, accept and deal with those difficult moments in our lives. At those times, we need to bring with us the strength and assurances of our Catholic Christian faith, and our trust in Jesus Christ. We have to be willing to continue on in our life just as Our Lord and His apostles had to do, as they left behind them the peace and calm of Mount Tabor for the tumultuous and difficult journey to Jerusalem leading eventually to Calvary.

Today's Gospel of the Transfiguration teaches us that our union with Christ, along with a healthy prayer life are essential for our ability to act in a Christ-like manner; a true Christian in the face of trials and difficult situations. To be faithful to one's marriage, to be honest and upright in our dealings with others, to be faithful to the teachings of Christ and His Church, is possible only when we remember the glory of Christ on Mt. Tabor and His promise of eternal life in His kingdom.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

What are some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

Answer:

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels, and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Ciszek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the "Catechism of the Catholic Church" to learn more about the Church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are powerful and interesting reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.

St. Anthony Spirituality Center- Marathon, WI.

Lenten Day of Prayer (St. Paul) Wed, March 15.

(9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.): Focus: St. Paul. The morning will provide a historical focus to the circumstances surrounding Paul. In the afternoon, we will study Scriptural passages that will help us understand the importance of the spirituality that Paul brought to Christianity. Presented by Fr. Jim Bartleme. Cost of $55 includes continental breakfast and a delicious noon meal. Nothing Can Separate Us (Healing After Suicide)

March 17-19. During this retreat we will approach the mystery that is suicide, exploring some of its psycho-social and spiritual dimensions as well as addressing the grieving process. There will be a service of remembrance and healings for those who have been lost to us. The retreat will offer space for quiet reflection as well as connection with others. Presented by Catherine Kuschel (M.Div, MAC, LPCC, LADC-MN). Begins with Friday evening registration at 5 p.m. and will conclude by 1 p.m. on Sunday.

In "Opening the Word" in Formed we reflect on the Transfiguration. The Apostles, with Jesus, experience the Light of Faith and also doubt, just as we do in our lives. God calls us in the readings to listen to His Word and follow.

Feeling like you just never get this faith life right? Well, Formed offers a Lectio Divina (10) session Bible Study on St. Peter, a stubborn, impetuous, impulsive guy who answered Jesus call to follow Him and was rewarded by becoming the first pope and leader of His church. If Christ used Peter, he will do the same for us if we believe. Find out more about St. Peter in the (10) session Lectio Divina series in Formed. Open Formed, go to Programs, and scroll down to Lectio Divina Peter.

The Secular Franciscans of the St. James Fraternity, Wausau, will meet for the regular monthly gathering on Sunday, March 12, 2017 at 2 p m at St. Michael's Krasowski Hall. There will be a guest speaker, Sister Veronica from St. Anthony's with the topic of Divine Mercy. Everyone is welcome to attend. Call Greg at 715-370-6901 for further information.

Attend Catholics at the Capitol March 28, 2017

Every two years, the Wisconsin Catholic Conference hosts Catholics at the Capitol. Hundreds of Catholics from around the state come to Madison for formation and legislative advocacy. This year's speaker will be Colleen Stratton, a survivor of human trafficking, she will share her painful but inspiring story.

March 28, 8:45 - 4:00 at Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center, 2 blocks from the Capitol, you are invited to meet with their legislators.
