The Lazarus Miracle

How many of us would like the power to go back in time and change our past? Have you ever thought, "if only I could go back in time and undo this or unsay that," or maybe if I could go back and do something that I had failed to do or say something that I left unsaid? Perhaps everyone is haunted with regrets of what should have been done or could have been done.

Martha and Mary both said: "Lord, if only you had been here our brother would not have died!" Did our Lord say: "You are both right!" Did He snap His fingers and bring everyone back in time four or five days earlier to a time when Lazarus was sick but still alive? No, He didn't, but He could have, if He had wanted to.

We never see God undoing time that way. God deals with what is, and not what might have been. What is sad is that many people live much of their lives in the past, filled with regrets of what should have been done or left undone or should have been said or left unsaid. They are like a person driving a car that is looking in the rear-view mirror.

The raising of Lazarus is a story of God teaching us to live in the here and now and to deal with what is and not what might have been or what could have been. Lazarus was dead and he was in the tomb. Yet, it is never too late for God to revive and revitalize that which is dead. And to affect the miracle, Jesus issues three commands.

The first, "Roll away the stone!" Who had placed this huge round stone in the doorway? People did! And now Jesus was telling them to roll it away! How many huge stones have you and I placed as obstacles between ourselves and others, between ourselves and God and between us and doing good? We all can be very good at placing obstacles between ourselves and the practice of our faith. Jesus tells us " "Roll away the stone." ... Are we brave enough to roll them away? Or do we want to continue living in the past?

The second command Jesus gives is: "Lazarus, come out!" And the dead man came out! We need to roll away the obstacles to move forward with our lives, even if we are still somewhat bound by our weaknesses and failures. The key is to be willing to move forward in our relationships with others and with God, and live out our Catholic faith, even if at first it means crawling. Without desire on our part to move forward in our lives as a Christian, we will remain in the tomb. Even a person rotting away in their tomb of past regrets can still do something to help themselves move forward.

The third command Jesus gives: "Unbind him, and let him go!" Even though Lazarus could stumble himself out of the tomb, there was no way he could unbind himself. He needed others to help him. He needed his family and his Church community to help him. We too are called at times to help others who are bound by the past to be set free.

Many are in the tomb of hopelessness and decay, in the bondage of sinful habits or darkness of mind. Nothing short of a miracle can bring them back to life in Christ. Jesus is ready for the miracle. He himself said, "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly!"

Are we ready to roll away the stones that stand between us and the goodness of God? Are we ready to take the first steps in coming out of an unhealthy place of darkness and sin? Are we ready to unbind others with our help so that they may begin to experience a new freedom in life? Are we ready to cooperate with our Lord in the working of new miracles, for ourselves or for others or both? Saint Lazarus, pray for us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Lent always helps me renew my relationship with God. What can I do to achieve that the rest of the year?

Answer:

The obvious answer may seem to be to do whatever you do during Lent all year. But part of the power of Lent is that we focus as a community on renewing our faith and preparing for Easter. Our Lenten practices have a purpose and a goal. Therein lies the secret. When we focus our efforts on one virtue, or try to change one bad habit, or seek to deepen our understanding of one aspect of faith, we focus our efforts and give our full attention to what we are trying to accomplish. We tend to be more successful achieving our goals. More importantly, it has a ripple effect in our lives: one thing changes or is added to the spiritual mix of our lives and many aspects are changed. Think of it in terms of exercise. We walk, lift weights, bend and stretch to attain the maximum benefit from what we do. In addition, to keep those benefits, we eat healthful food and get enough vitamins and rest. Spirituality requires the same kind of attention: we pray, fast, read the Bible, receive sacraments, and do charitable work to maximize the benefits of practicing faith. Keeping Lent year-round keeps us in spiritual shape!

SOUTHWEST WAUSAU CIRCLE OF JOY FOOD PANTRY

It's time to start planning for our Easter food baskets. We hope to provide at least 15 families with an Easter meal this year. Do you think you could help? We will need, of course, at least 15 hams. We have freezer space available. If you can help with a ham donation, please call the number below and we'll make arrangements for you to drop it off, or for someone to pick it up.

Cash donations are also needed to purchase items that we might not have on our shelves. Checks should be made payable to "Circle of Joy" and can be put in an envelope marked "Circle of Joy" and dropped in any collection basket at church, or can be mailed directly to: Circle of Joy, 4414 Rib Mountain Drive, Box 114, Wausau WI 54401.

If your family would benefit from an Easter food basket, please contact Dee at 715-573-4858. We will make every effort to help.

As in the past, we are asking anyone attending Mass on Holy Thursday (April 13) to consider bringing a non-perishable food item to Mass for the food pantry. The groceries will NOT be carried up to the altar (as we did at Thanksgiving) – they can be brought to the main entrance of church, or can be left at any exit when you come into church.
These contributions help replenish our shelves after giving out the food baskets for Easter.
The Offertory Collection that day will also benefit the Circle of Joy.

LIVING ROSARY & CROWNING OF MARY

on April 26th from 6:15-7:30pm Religious Education will be presenting a Living Rosary along with the Crowning of Mary.

In presenting the Living Rosary all students hold a knot on the rosary rope to say the prayer together. The rosary goes up and down each aisle, throughout the entire church. It is a beautiful celebration.

With May being the month of Mary, we take the opportunity to emphasize the importance of Mary in our faith by crowning her in a small celebration following the rosary.
