Easter Homily by Pope Francis

Dear brothers and sisters let us not be closed to the newness that God wants to bring into our lives! Are we often weary, disheartened and sad? Do we feel weighed down by our sins? Do we think that we won't be able to cope? Let us not close our hearts, let us not lose confidence, let us never give up: there are no situations which God cannot change, there is no sin which he cannot forgive if only we open ourselves to him.

In the Gospel of Easter, we first meet the women who go to the tomb of Jesus with spices to anoint his body. They go to perform an act of compassion, a traditional act of affection and love for a dear departed person. They find the tomb empty, the body of Jesus is not there, something new has happened. And suddenly there are two men in dazzling clothes who say: "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; but has risen." Nothing remains as it was before, not only in the lives of those women, but also in our own lives and in the history of mankind. Jesus is not dead, He has risen, He is alive! He does not simply return to life; rather, He is life itself, because He is the Son of God, the living God.

Jesus no longer belongs to the past, but lives in the present and is projected towards the future; he is the everlasting "today" of God. This is how the newness of God appears to the women, the disciples and all of us: as victory over sin, evil and death, over everything that crushes life and makes it seem less human. And this is a message meant for me and for you. How often does Love have to tell us: Why do you look for the living among the dead? Our daily problems and worries can wrap us up in ourselves, in sadness and bitterness... and that is where death is. That is not the place to look for the One who is alive!

Let the risen Jesus enter your life, welcome Him as a friend, with trust: He is life! If up till now perhaps you have kept Him at a distance, step forward. He will receive you with open arms. If you have been indifferent, take a risk: you won't be disappointed. If following Him seems difficult, don't be afraid, trust Him, be confident that He is close to you, He is with you and He will give you the peace you are looking for and the strength to live as He would have you do.

Applications are now open for a new class of men and women who wish to serve as Leaders of Prayer for the Diocese of La Crosse. These classes are comprised of a three-part course of study meeting Friday evening and all day Saturday. Lay persons are prepared and commissioned to serve their parishes in a variety of ways, including: bringing Holy Communion to the sick, conducting a Liturgy of the Word, possibly assisting with distribution of Communion on weekdays when a priest is unavailable (or on Sunday in an emergency) and leading parishioners in prayer at times of illness or death. In nursing homes or healthcare facilities, when no priest is available, they may conduct a Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest. For more information or to register visit www.dioc.org/ministries and click on "Leaders of Prayer," or contact the Office for Ministries and Social Concerns – ministries@dioc.org, or 608-791-0161.

Please join the students as they receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time.

Religious Ed "Bible Update" Project
