The Solemnity of the Ascension

The celebration of our Lord's Ascension highlights that our Lord intends that His power and authority is passed on from one generation to the next. Moses, for example, does God's work in guiding and instructing God's people, leading them out of Egypt. God instructs Moses to pass on the continuation of this task to Joshua. Elijah the great prophet, likewise called upon by God to strengthen His people in truth, and to help them avoid the dangers of religious indifference. Elisha, the successor to Elijah carries on this work.

Most of us have been involved in various projects of one sort or another such as building projects; various social activities or organizations; fundraisers for cancer research, or wounded warrior programs for returning veterans or Badger Camp, or some Pro-life organization. And if we find such projects and programs worthwhile, we want to see them grow and continue on. It's like when a family rejoices when a new baby is born, because there is new hope for the family to continue on into the next generation.

In the Second Reading and in the Gospel, we see that our Lord has completed His mission of redeeming the human race. However, He is now ready to pass on His power and authority to the Apostles and their successors in a very specific way, and to all of us in His Church, in a general way to do what we can, so that the redemptive work of Jesus can take effect in our lives and the lives of others. With His Ascension, He prepares His people for the coming of the Holy Spirit. It is no longer the weak and dying Lord of Good Friday who ascends into heaven. No, it is the All-Powerful Lord of both the Living and the Dead.

And just as Joshua, Elisha and the Apostles were not chosen to be passive onlookers, but were called by God to continue His work in the world, so too, each one of us, as members of the Church, are called upon to continue the work of God using the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We have not been called by Christ to be passive observers. We have been called by Christ as Catholics, as Christians, to continue His work in 2017. We have been called by our Baptism and by our Confirmation to continue the work of the Lord in our daily lives.

At this time of year, people are listening to wonderful speeches at graduations in high schools and colleges. And the Graduates are called upon to make the best use of their education so as to make the world a better place, and this is great! But the Ascension of our Lord should remind each one of us, that we too by our Baptism and Confirmation, have been commissioned by Jesus to make the world a better place, by the practice of our Catholic Faith.

And Jesus expects each one of us to make His Presence alive in the way we live and in the way we interact with others. May each one of us, through our Baptism and Confirmation, have the courage to continue the Work of God in these challenging times.

Opening the Word in Formed for this Ascension Sunday expands upon how Jesus once again tells His Apostles that His kingdom is not of this earth. He gives them the power to Baptize and to evangelize the world. St Theresa of Avila tells us that His message is the since He has ascended into heaven, we are now the hands, feet, eyes, heart, indeed, the Body of Christ, here on earth. It is through each of us that others are called to Christ and the His work will continue on earth.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:
Why do some dioceses move holy days, or not even celebrate them at all. Doesn't everyone do the same thing?

Answer:
The short answer is no, not everyone does the same thing. Although the Church is universal, there are many local customs and saints that each country, sometimes just a region, will honor. For example, feast days and patronal days may not be major feast days on the Church's universal calendar, but are celebrated as such in one place. Holy days of obligation are the same way. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops has a certain amount of discretion in choosing days that best reflect the local church's experience and history. Another reason certain feasts are moved is a practical one. With limited clergy, or a great difficulty for people to get to Mass, the feast day may be transferred to a Sunday. The rationale is that if a significant feast should be part of the Church's celebration, then better to do so on a Sunday when people and clergy are available, rather than try to fit it on a day when one or both cannot be there.

2017-2018 Religious Ed Program Needs Your Help!

We are looking for two Catechists to teach 4th and 8th grade Religious Education this fall, and a Wed night Secretary to help with the office and student concerns during class.

Training is available for all new Catechists, to make sure you are ready and comfortable before classes start in September. Classes are on Wednesday evenings from 6:15-7:30 pm (weeks with holidays or student vacations are never scheduled). Preparation is done at home, but the textbook is easy to work with, and assistance will be provided if needed.

For questions or to sign up, call the Rel Ed office today—715.842.4543 ext 4.
