The Birthday of our Church

Today is the Solemnity of Pentecost; the Birthday of the Church, the Day our Lord fulfills His promise to send upon the whole Church His gift of the Holy Spirit. Pentecost has a number of symbols attached to it, let's look at just two of them; wind and flame. In the Acts of the Apostles we read, "And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house." Also in the Acts of Apostles we read, "And there appeared to them tongues as it were of fire, which parted and it came to rest on each one of them." When we celebrate the birthday of someone we normally present a birthday cake with lit candles on it for the birthday person to blow out. Flames and wind are always part of this simple but loving family tradition.

Fire is a wonderful symbol of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is like a fire in at least three ways: He brings God's presence, God's passion, and God's purity. The Holy Spirit is the presence of God as He indwells the heart of the believer. In the Old Testament, God showed His presence to the Israelites by covering the tabernacle with fire. This fiery presence provided light and guidance. In the New Testament, God gives light and guidance to His adopted children by covering the tabernacle of their bodies with the same fiery presence of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit creates the passion of God in our hearts. After the two disciples traveling to Emmaus talk with the resurrected Jesus, they describe their hearts as "burning within us". After the apostles receive the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, they have a passion which impels them to speak the word of God boldly. The Holy Spirit produces the purity of God in our lives. The Holy Spirit is the agent of our sanctification. As fire purges the dross from precious metal, so the Holy Spirit removes our sins to refine us.

Wind or breath is also a wonderful symbol of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit breathes into our hearts and minds. As a ship is moved through the water by wind in its sails, so we can be moved along in our life by the Spirit's impulse. This sacred breath of the Holy Spirit directs, guides, comforts, and influences us as it imparts newness of life. The song Breathe on me, Breath of God sums the workings of the Holy Spirit under this symbol of wind or breath: Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love the way you love, and do what you would do. Breathe on me, Breath of God, until my heart is pure, until my will is one with yours, to do and to endure. Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I never die, but live with you the perfect life for all eternity.

On our birthdays we use our breath to blow out the flames so as to enjoy the cake. On the birthday of the Church, our Lord sends out His Holy Breath, to ignite the flames within the hearts of His disciples, so they may enjoy His life dwelling within them. Happy Birthday to all the members of the Church!

Everyday Stewardship

There are some things I miss now that my children are older. Fewer snuggles, fewer moments of awe and wonder, and fewer crazy questions that make me laugh. However, if I'm honest, there are some things I do not miss, especially the birthday party. I loved the aspect of celebrating my child's birth, but most years the party cost too much, involved too much stress, and resulted in a lot of presents that ended up in my garage. Today, nice dinners with family and friends sharing time together have taken the place of the "birthday party" and that is fine with me.

Centuries ago, God moved in such a profound way and sent his Holy Spirit upon us, imparting to the Church gifts that remain with us today. That first Pentecost was a first birthday party of sorts, with people gathered to celebrate their common faith in Jesus Christ. Of course, that party had none of the trappings of a child's event at Chuck E. Cheese's, but instead presented us all with generous gifts that could be used for the glory of God instead of the stuff children discard after a few weeks.

Every year I think it is important to really celebrate what God has given to us, the Church, on the feast of Pentecost. The generosity of God knows no limits and the Holy Spirit is alive. It's just that the gifts from this celebration need to be used or the celebration will be hollow. The gifts are free to us even though they are priceless. It would be poor stewardship to toss them in the garage with all those toys that time forgot.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Is it true that the feast of Pentecost, the celebration of the descent of the Spirit upon the followers of Jesus, was a Jewish pilgrimage festival?

Answer:

Pentecost is only mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles, written by the author of Luke's Gospel. John's Gospel speaks of Jesus breathing the Spirit upon his followers on Easter Sunday. Luke in Acts is the only one who unpacks the Easter events of Jesus' passion, death, resurrection, ascension, and the sending forth of the Spirit in a period of fifty days.

The Jews had three pilgrimage feasts--Passover, celebrating the Exodus from Egypt; Shavuot, or festival of Weeks, celebrating the giving of the law on Mount Sinai; and Sukkot, the harvest festival of Booths, commemorating the forty years of wandering in the desert. Shavuot celebrated the central covenant event in Jewish life--the giving of the law to Moses on Mount Sinai. The mighty wind, the shaking of the house in which the followers were gathered, along with the tongues of fire all reflect elements surrounding the giving of the law to Moses in the Book of Exodus. Luke was imaging this very backdrop and scenario in this significant event of the community being gifted with the Spirit. As the Torah was the way to God for Jews, so Jesus' Spirit was the guide, power, path to God for his followers.

Today we celebrate Pentecost. The Father and Jesus knew we needed strength to follow Jesus and continue His work here on earth so the Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles and upon each of us as we were confirmed. Peter, the bumbling fisherman, became a great preacher and converted 3000 with his first homily! Surely, God has created some miracles in your life also. Watch for the opportunities that He gives you to demonstrate love and caring to others. Remember you are the Body of Christ and the one to do His work.

Many do not follow up on their confirmation. Fr. Michael Schmitz has a book featured on FORMED that helps us to understand why young and old do not respond to the call to be Catholic in their adult years. It is called We Must Go Out and it can be found in the new materials on FORMED.
